Minister returns special service

The service at Churchill Community Church last Sunday was in charge of former members of the Prospect Park Bible Class of Prospect Park United Church, Toronto. Our minister, the Rev. A. Walter Fosbury, served this congregation from 1967-1968.

Mr. Norman Moyle, now a member of Willowdale United Church, conducted the service and spoke to our young people and children. Mr. John Masters, of St. Luke's United Church, Islington read the Scripture Lesson, and Mr. Glenn Ferguson, of King City United Church led the congregation in prayer. The sermon was preached by Mrs. Morley Zunbrigg of Willowdale. Mrs. Dennis Salaway, who has recently returned to Ontario from Vancouver, B.C. sang two beautiful solos, "Balm of Gilead" and "How Great Thou Art".

Choir takes part

Our young peoples choir also assisted very ably in the ministry of song. Last Sunday's service was for all who led and participated in it a time of deep spiritual blessing.

Our minister, who is convalescing at home after a major operation, had a small part in the service and expects to be in charge of the service next Sunday.

contentant for Esqueving Council in the coming election next month.

Dr. C. E. Bayliss of Santa Monica, California, spent a couple of days in Toronto on business and visited with Rev. A. W. Fosbury three times last week also with Mrs. Fosbury. He reported the good news that their daughter is much improved in health and the baby is fine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Caruso and children of Brampton called on Sunday to welcome her parents Rev. and Mrs. Fosbury back home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wragg were Sunday dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner, David and Julianne prior to leaving for Mexico.

Miss Kathy Swackhamer who is attending Guelph University was home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graham of Hillsburg also Mr. and Mrs. Ron Saunders and family were guests on Sunday for dinner in honor of Stephen Saunders birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ian Wallace and Megan at Lobo.
