

Service diploma presented Calvin Aitken at banquet

Past president Calvin Aitken was singled out for special honors at this year's annual fair board banquet. He was presented with the agricultural service diploma by friend and neighbor George Wallace. (Mr. Aitken had presented a diploma to Mr. Wallace last year).

About 80 attended the dinner in Limehouse Presbyterian church Tuesday of last week and fair president Bill Nelles was chairman.

Various posts Mr. Aitken has held various offices in the Acton Agricultural Society, and was president when the society held its golden anniversary fair. He has been director and president of the Halton Soil and Crop Association; is past president of Halwell Mutual Fire Insurance company and is presently a director; is a member of the session of Knox church, Acton, and was a member of Erin district high school board for a number of years.

Speaker of the evening was agricultural representative Henry Stanley, who also showed a film on how more food is being produced in underdeveloped countries. He likened our present situation to that of one of the Pharaohs, who was warned a famine was coming and made preparations for it. We must prepare to feed an ever-increasing population, he warned.

He was introduced by Nino Brada and thanked by John Hasson. He received a gift with thanks.

Greetings Greetings were expressed by Stewart Hall, president of the Georgetown fair board; Alfred Ford, president of the Milton fair board and Dr. Frank Oakes representing Acton.

There were special introductions for two life members Sandy McLean and R. L. Davidson; past secretary-treasurer Fred Wright; Miss Acton Fair Anita Thibodeau, Shorthorn Lassie Norma Leslie and Halton Dairy Princess Susan Nixon.

Head table Rev. Young said grace and Mrs. W. J. McDonald thanked Limehouse W. A. Head table guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nelles, Bert Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. W. Linham, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Swackhamer, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Marshall, Rev. and Mrs. Young, Mrs. W. J. McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. Oakes and Anita Thibodeau.

Wilf Duval marks 25 years at Free Press

At a staff dinner last Friday, Wilfred J. Duval Jr. received a certificate and silver dollars signifying his 25 years with Dills Printing and Publishing Company. Dave Dills made the presentation. Mr. Duval is press room foreman.

Another surprise award was a certificate and $25 cheque to Don Ryder, from an international ad service company, for the use of art work in ads. Mr. Ryder, the ad manager of the Free Press, has won this award once before. Jim Dills made the presentation.

There were over 60 at the dinner including plant staff, office staffs from Acton and Milton, husbands and wives and guests.

Others at the Free Press with 25 years records are linotype operator Dora Ryder and editor Hartley Coles.

CERTIFICATE OF award for meritorious achievement in the use of art work in ads was presented to Don Ryder by Jim Dills at a Dills Printing staff dinner last Friday. A $25 cheque goes with the award, from an international company, which Mr. Ryder has won before. —(Staff Photo)

VOTE DECEMBER 7, 1970

RE-ELECT STAN FULLER FOR REEVE ERIN TOWNSHIP

To the Ratepayers of Erin Township:

I kindly solicit your support in the forthcoming municipal election for the position of Reeve. I have 10 years' experience, 6 as Councillor, 2 as Deputy-Reeve and 2 as the present Reeve.

Last year, I was elected to the Road Committee for Wellington County. This is a three year term and I have two more years remaining, with the final year as Chairman of this Committee. I feel that this position I hold at present would be a definite loss to the Township if I am not elected and that I can represent you, the Ratepayer, to your full advantage at both Township and County Councils.
