

Eden Mills trustees acclaimed

Three trustees, Norm Marshall, Dave Masson and Rodney Bell were elected to the Eden Mills Board of Trustees by acclamation at the village's nomination meeting.

RODNEY BELL has resided in the village of Eden Mills for years. An engineer, Mr. Bell feels that a trustee must be aware and be prepared to make decisions and strive to give good government to his community.

DAVE MASSON, a virtual newcomer into the vicinity of Eden Mills is presently employed by the Ford Motor Company as the supervisor of material handling. He offers his know-how to the Village and feels that, although he wants to keep the cultural habits and preserve the aesthetics of rural community life, the people should be better informed as to what is going on.

NORM MARSHALL, a teacher at College Heights Vocational School in Guelph, has lived in Eden Mills all his life. He has had previous trustee experience and has always been interested in civic affairs. He is aware that he must keep up with progress but he would like to keep the village life style as it is now established.

Toronto region

The future of the Toronto Centred Region will be decided within the next six months, Ontario's deputy treasurer and economics minister told a Toronto group on Saturday.

Provincial government proposals for the area stretching from west of Hamilton through to Port Hope, from Lake Ontario north to Georgian Bay should be finalized early in the new year, H. Ian Macdonald told the Royal Canadian Institute.

Meanwhile development within the confines of the Toronto Centred Region—on which the government unveiled proposals last May, is being limited if it does not conform to the policies set out in the government's design for development. Mr. Macdonald said 170 planning amendments of municipalities have been suspended because they conflict with the intentions of the regional design.

Ospringe

Street lights on again 89th birthday observed

By Mrs. D. G. Robertson
Mrs. M. Jackson celebrated her 89th birthday on Saturday, when numerous friends and relatives called to offer their best wishes. An inscribed birthday cake centred the tea table.

Mrs. Jackson enjoys good health and is very active around her home and garden which is a show-place during the summer, with flowers and vegetables and many a weed. She enjoys company and a friendly game of cards which help to pass the winter, when she is not outdoors.

Lights on again

Residents are happy to have all the street lights again working, after a number were blown out during a thunderstorm in the summer.

Mrs. Florence Grundy was able to leave the Guelph hospital on Tuesday after receiving tests and treatment for the past two weeks.

New leader

Guiding in Ospringe is now being helped by Miss Judy Short, who was recently a Lieutenant of 3rd Orangeville Guides.

It is hoped that the local group will progress quickly under Judy's capable guidance.

Mrs. M. Rolfe and Teny Vander Heide will attend training sessions and make up the leaders.

All girls between 11 and 14 wishing to become part of this guide movement are asked to be at the school on Tuesday evening at 7:15 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken spent the week end with their son Sherlock and Mrs. Aitken in Ottawa.

At game

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Auld were in Toronto on Saturday evening and attended the Toronto-Detroit hockey game at Maple Leaf Gardens.

Donald Woodward, young son of Mr. and Mrs. David Woodward, underwent a tonsillectomy at Guelph Hospital and is now convalescing at home.

D. G. and Mrs. Robertson accompanied their son Douglas and Mrs. Robertson, and Mrs. C. L. Heimler of Guelph to Oakville Funeral Home, to pay their respects to Leonard Stansbury, father of Mrs. Kenneth Robertson, whose death occurred last week.

Machinery sale

A good crowd attended the sale of surplus machinery on Saturday at George Grundy's farm.

Mr. Allan Dent, 1st Line, is a patient at Guelph hospital.

Limehouse

Banquet catering fall in report

By Mrs. A. Benton
We hope for a good recovery for Mr. A. C. Patterson who spent a few days in hospital in Georgetown after a fall resulting in a broken ankle last week.

Fair dinner

The W. A. ladies catered a roast beef dinner for over 80 when the Acton Fair Board held their annual banquet Tues. evening last week in the Limehouse

Presbyterian church basement.

The Benton's visited Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Quinton, Meaford, a week ago.

Inhospital

We hope to see Mrs. Fred Brooks home soon from Guelph General hospital, where she has been undergoing treatment for the past three weeks.

Community Club holds election

By Mrs. R. Wright
Saturday evening the Eden Mills and District Community Club held open house in the hall for their annual meeting.

Before the business Tony Vos entertained the gathering to a showing of slides of views of Eden Mills with summer and winter scenes which proved interesting.

The annual reports were given by Margaret Adair secretary, sports, Don Peeling; entertainment Betty Marshall; property Marsel Lowrie; group committee Trevor Clifford; guides Kaye Stevenson, nursery school Anna Marie Bell, booth Joan Chamberlain, brownies Ann Jackson.

Publicity committee, Rene Beattie, Anna Marie Bell; mother's auxiliary Kaye

Stevenson; president's report Rodger Bell; auditors Doug Beattie, William McLean.

Bob Love took the chair to elect a new treasurer as Ann Vos retires. Nominees were Mrs. Masson, Betty Kirby and Joan Lowrie. The vote was taken by the showing of hands and Joan Lowrie was elected.

All offices remain as usual. Rodney Bell, president; 1st vice, Trevor Clifford; 2nd vice, Ross Campbell; secretary Margaret Adair, treasurer Joan Lowrie.

Coffee and cookies brought the evening to a close.

Neighbors welcome highway hardtop

By Mrs. H. Scott

Mr. and Mrs. G. Henderson opened their home to a community party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Tom Benney. The group played euchre and Mr. and Mrs. Benney were presented with a reclining chair and the W. I.

presented a serving tray. The young couple are living in Georgetown.

Mrs. Bombolt is home from Peel Memorial Hospital and we hope she continues to improve. Community sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. G. Burt and family in the death of Mr. 'Tush' Foster recently.

At long last we have a hard top on our highway and can perhaps keep our cars clean enough to see their color. Mr. Casselman is a patient at the present time in Georgetown Memorial Hospital.

W. T. Foster lived here

William Tushingham Foster of 648 St. Clarens Ave., Toronto, passed away on Nov. 18, suddenly at Toronto General Hospital in his 59th year. He was the son of the late William Foster and Mrs. Jennie Foster of Toronto and brother of Pearl (Mrs. G. Burt) Georgetown, Mildred (Mrs. A. McCullough) Westbrook, Georgina (Mrs. A. Gauley) of Crofton B.C. Florence (Mrs. Lock) Daisy (Mrs. E. Lucy) Verna (Mrs. C. Flint) Dorothy (Mrs. R. Gray) all of Toronto. Brother Roy and sister Martha are deceased.

He moved to Acton from Cheltenham and lived here for 15 years and moved to Toronto in 1945 and worked as manager for A. C. Rentals for 24 years.

His family and many friends will sadly miss him.

It is much better to dwell on those than on tragedies. Don't you agree?

I see your weather has been bad. Do hope you get some sun soon for your vegetable garden.

Love,

Val.

A letter from Eden Mills

Eden Mills, Ont.
20th May, 1968.

Dear May:

A belated happy birthday, dear. Shocking of me to forget.

What exciting days these are with all the flowers coming out. There are so many things coming up. Not only those bulbs I put in last fall but each woman has left a legacy of her favorites. There are a couple of little old rose bushes, and the ones the MacRaes gave me seem to have survived the winter all right.

There's a good clump of lily-of-the-valley. The scillas of course are over, but the grape hyacinths are in full bloom. The daffs are just coming and the tulips are in bud. There are even some pretty apple blossoms. I like to make the rounds each evening as soon as I get home—in the morning, too, if there's time.

My neighbors laugh at me a bit about it. About a week ago when I got back there was a lovely daffodil out up the hill. I was a bit surprised because it was in a place where I didn't think I'd planted one, so I rushed up to see—it was plastic!—courtesy of Betty Marshall. And Gladys claims I'm already counting the apples.

New windows

The new windows are in in the porch and I have painted the frames. Arley Roy has given the table and chairs a new coat of soft green paint. And the metal shed is in order. Now that that awful old shed over the well is down I can see a beautiful willow tree over beyond Betty's. The long supple branches with the leaves that exciting yellow green of spring are waving and tossing in every breeze.

No doubt we'll be plunged into a

Ontario.

Is there any place you'd rather be?

Ontarians are the kind of people who wouldn't be here if there was any place better. We are people who came from a hundred lands and stayed to build. People with backbone and brawn and a hunger to succeed. Men and women who've created a standard of living in decades that other lands worked centuries to build. If we have a flaw it's our chronic modesty. Ontarians may be proud to be Ontarians and Canadians... they just seldom tell anyone. From an economic point of view that's wrong. The more people we have boosting Ontario and Canada the better it is. And we've got a lot to boost with. At a time when the dollar is having many demands made on it, Ontarians can note that provincial taxes have held the line in 1970. And we had a surplus to boot. Yet, needed programs have not been neglected. The Ontario Housing Corporation for example, has housed 120,000 people to date and currently has almost a billion dollars worth of programs active in nearly 200 Ontario Communities. We need a vigorous economy of course, to support these important programs. And, that's where you come in. Though our productivity has doubled in ten years and our incomes in twelve, Ontarians don't sit on their successes. There's a demanding decade ahead full of challenges and opportunities to make the quality of our lives better yet. To meet these challenges we've got to believe in ourselves. Which, when you think about it, isn't such a bad idea.

Everytime you boost Ontario... Ontario and Canada get a little stronger.

Government of Ontario John Roberts, Prime Minister.
