TWO YOUNG ACTON BOYS were among the entertainers at the Ontario Steel Products Social and Athletic Club's annual Christmas party for the children, held at Ontario School for the Deaf auditorium in Milton. Bernie Taylor and John Pink of Acton dressed up as

Approval was given by representatives of a variety of social service agencies, to form a Children's Services Co-ordinating Committee for north Halton, during a meeting at Milton District High School.

Objective of the organization will be to provide some co-ordination between existing services such as education, health, correction, community, welfare, and family court.

Concern felt
 The group was an outgrowth of concern felt by members in the various areas, for some co-ordination which could lead to more effective and efficient services.

A steering committee formed at an earlier meeting, recommended establishment of a policy committee with representatives from the various areas of service and an operating committee with a co-ordinator that would confer in areas of joint interest.

While the policy committee would include north Halton the smaller groups might be centred

Help with income tax

Brampton—It will soon be income tax time again and the Continuing Education Division at Sheridan College is offering a course in Income Tax Filing. It's designed to help people fill out their own income tax forms correctly and legally.

The 10-week course will be held at the Brampton Campus every Monday for 2½ hours starting January 18.

Instructor for the course will be Robert Stevenson, a Brampton high school teacher who also operates a local tax service.

"The Whistlers" complete with large top hats, and many of the youngsters in the audience had a hard time figuring them out as they danced on the stage. Gifts were distributed by Santa to close to 1,200 children during the afternoon of fun and frivolity.—(Staff Photo)

AS USUAL, quite a few of the Free Press staff created their own Christmas cards this year. Pictures of children are the most popular decoration.

ACTON STORES did an unexpected amount of business the day before Christmas.

"FISHIN for CHRISTMAS" was the theme of the 10A classroom at Acton District High, which was judged the best decorated for Christmas.—(Staff Photo)

Select winners room decorating

Grades 10A and 9E placed first and second respectively, in the Acton District High School room decorating contest.

Theme of the first prize winner was "Fishin for Christmas". The room was brightly decorated with an old fashioned fireplace, fish nets hung from the ceiling, a Christmas tree and old Santa with his fishing pole.

Second prize winner featured a peek into Santa's workshop on Christmas Eve. Toys labelled for local communities like Silvercreek, Limehouse, Speyside etc. were set out on students' desks.

Rooms were judged on theme, effort, originality and overall impression. Judges were high school secretary Betty-Lou

Bowden, Halton County Board of Education attendance officer Bill Coon and Free Press reporter Denis Gibbons. Student's Council president Joe Petric organized the contest.
