HEADPIN HILITES—Sympathize with "Mac" Herrington of the Major League if you will. "Mac" who divides his bowling activities between the Georgetown Bowl and our own Acton Lanes, was bowling in the "Married Couples" league last week in Georgetown when he racked up eleven strikes in a row and then, you might know, punched the headpin to miss out on last perfect game. "S tough, "Mac," still a 440 lb. darn nice game in any man's bowling career . . . in the weekly week-end "Beat the Champ" it was Jack Gould who dethroned Bill Shannon. Jack with a 860 triple qualified along with John McGilgalloway who rolled 448 for the right to challenge the champ. In the championship roll, it was Gould the winner and new champion with a 723 as against Shannon's 711 and McGilgalloway's 541—that winds it up once again my friends, so adios amigos and goodnite Concord City.

Members agreed to invite Prof. Wheatley from the University of Guelph to outline to a future meeting, the results of Chollform tests conducted in the Blue Springs Creek. Set salaries
The per diem payment for members of the Board was set at $25, a meeting with $30 for the Chairman. The decision on the payment was recorded after a private discussion by members.
