

NOTES FROM ACTON HIGH

By Mary Ann Freuler
Acton District High School's third Winter Carnival officially began Monday, February 15. The first event of Ookpik II was the cupcake eating contest held Monday afternoon.

After following a short period day, the students filed into the gymnasium to watch ten male students eat to their highest capacity in order to win the prize.

53 cup cakes
Rob Ellerby seemed to be the school's favorite and he certainly wasted no time in starting. Jim Frizzell gorged himself, also to the cheers of the audience.

Queen contestants
Last Thursday, each class was asked to vote for their choice as "Carnival Queen". Contestants for the contest were Karen Atkinson, Heather Cormack, Christine Forbes, Susan Kidd, Wendy Hannah, Judi Howson, Sue Powaduck, Karen Pierce, Judy Thibodeau, Chris Brunelle, Ann Whatmough, Lynn Bender and Lynne Dunn. The latter five are the five finalists.

Coffee House dance
This Thursday is the coffee house dance. Everyone is welcome to attend and this invitation stands for all carnival events. The music will be supplied by the Sun. This is the same group as played at our last Coffee House Dance.

Variety show
Friday evening is the Variety Show. There will be musical, dancing and comedy numbers from members of the school body and talented people of the community.

New system
Last week, Tuesdays and Thursdays were set aside for telling classes of the new semester system which will be employed next year. Option sheets were to be handed in on Monday, stating the subjects which the individual wished to study.

The staff of the school were fortunate to be able to visit two schools presently under this system when they had teachers' convention last Friday.

Make film
Several students are working together to produce a film on Acton District High School. When completed, it will run for about ten minutes. Chris Brunelle is the director. The film will deal with the high school and will be highlighted by the Winter Carnival. Some students who will be attending the Mediterranean Cruise are active in making films also.

"THE CUPCAKE KID" Robbie Ellerby gobbled up 53 cupcakes in 30 minutes to win first prize in the Acton District High contest, held as an opening event for the school's annual winter carnival "Ookpik II", Monday. (Staff Photo)

Robbie Ellerby cupcake champ

Urged on by chants of "Stuff 'em in Rob" from cheering students, Robbie Ellerby gobbled up four and a half dozen cupcakes in 30 minutes to earn first prize money of $5 in the cupcake eating contest that opened up Acton District High's annual winter carnival, "Ookpik II", Monday.

Acton students visit centre

By Joe Petric
On Thursday, February 11, students of Mr. Ellis' and Mr. Sansom's English classes went with their respective teachers to the St. Lawrence Centre for the Arts to see Henrik Ibsen's, "An Enemy of the People."

Saskatchewan setting
The setting was a small Saskatchewan town, which, as a centennial project, had undertaken the construction of a man-made lake. In three years, the lake had become a health hazard, with local industry dumping waste into the streams that emptied into the lake. Dr. Thomas Stockman had investigated and confirmed the danger and wanted to start a campaign promoting a clean-up of the little resort. He faced the hypocrisy of the editor of the local paper, local business men, and the outright animosity of the mayor (his own brother) for threatening the economic stability of the town and its people. And so the play continued.

Worthwhile trip
Judging by comments heard after the play, it seems that everyone felt the trip to Toronto had been well worth the extra effort needed to make the journey in the evening instead of the afternoon, as originally planned. It is interesting to note that as an added attraction to our trip many observant individuals were rewarded with the sight of Rudolf Nureyev, the Russian Ballet star, as he walked by our bus as we were getting off. Mr. Nureyev was dancing as guest artist at the O'Keefe Centre with the Australian Ballet.

County will continue agricultural grants

It appears agricultural grants from Halton County Council will be continued, as in other years. Halton County Council debated the matter in great detail last month when finance committee urged discontinuation of all grants.

At the February meeting of council, members adopted a report by the office and administration committee recommending grants be considered in budget talks totalling $4,500.

Badminton reminder

Acton Badminton Club wishes to remind all its members that the regular playing sessions will resume after the Ookpik celebrations. The club meets in the high school gym Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7-10 p.m. These extended playing times make a larger membership possible. Those interested please phone Carol Korpela, 853-1906.
