Industrial playoffs
Two major upsets were nearly recorded Sunday night, as the Acton industrial hockey league playoffs got underway.
Playing without regular season scoring champion Harv Hillier, Lakeview Discount, who lost only one game all season, were hard pressed to come up with a 9-6 win over Blow Press.
Backed by John Leatherland's fine goaltending, Heller's the league cellar dwellers, gave Nelsen's Clothing a run for their money before bowing 7-6.
Jim Barden's third goal of the game, a blistering drive from outside the blueline, provided Lakeview with their margin of victory. The game was tied 2-2 at the end of the first period and Blow Press led 7-6 going into the third.
Ron Mellon bagged his fourth goal of the game at 13:35 of the third period to break a 6-6 tie and give Nelsen's their narrow win.

Huskie vet
Bruce Thomason played his usual fine game in the Tanner nets. Thomason blocked all but one of Huskie winger Dale Rahn's booming slap shots. Rahn has one of the hardest shots in the league.
Kevin Hall handed out some solid body-checks for Acton in the first period. Huskie captain Larry Schafer was particularly sharp back of the Durham blueline.

Niagara squad sidelines midgets

A fired-up Niagara-on-the-Lake midget team whipped the Acton C.F.A.W. squad 8-1 in the third and deciding game of a best of three O.M.H.A. midget "B" playoff series in Virgil, Thursday night. The win puts Niagara into the provincial quarter-finals against St. Mary's, Port Dover or Caledonia.
Acton won the first game of the series 6-3 in Acton, but Niagara bounced back to force a third game, winning 6-1 in Virgil, last Thursday night.
Outthrusting locals Niagara outthrust the locals from the opening whistle. The peninsula pucksters grabbed a 3-1 first period lead, then added three goals in the second period and two more in the third.

Plett scored a pair of goals for the winners. Istchenko, Welns, Dawson, Kempel, Bong, Buis tallied one apiece.
Ken Hurren netted the Acton goal with Dale Fisher assisting, at the 10 minute mark of the first period.
Rare off-night
Acton goalie Steve Webster unfortunately had one of his rare off-nights. However, his teammates were far from at their best either.

Midgets blank Hespeler Webster posts shutout

Acton C.F.A.W. midgets showed no signs of sulking over their elimination from O.M.H.A. playoffs last week, as they posted an impressive 5-0 shutout victory over Hespeler Legionnaires.
Dale Fisher netted a pair of goals and Ken Hurren, Pete

Morrison and Gary Turkoz notched one apiece for Acton. Turkoz and Bren Irwin earned two assists apiece, while Hurren and Randy Coker collected one each.
Steve Webster blocked Hespeler shots from all angles in recording the shutout. His play was outstanding.

Foolish penalties spell juve defeat

Acton Lions juveniles blew a chance to reach the O.M.H.A. juvenile "B" quarter-finals, when they dropped a 4-3 decision to New Hamburg in the fifth and deciding game of a best of five series, here Thursday night.
Rich Baechler scored three of the New Hamburg goals, including the winner with less than five minutes remaining in the game. Don Pfaff tallied the other goal.
Bill Field, Mark Nielsen and Gord Murray scored for Acton. Gord Williams earned two assists and Brad Timbers picked up one.

Penalties hurt
Lion forward Jim Stevenson spent more time in the penalty box than he did on the ice. Stevenson picked up minors for roughing, high-sticking and cross-checking and was finally tossed out of the game, late in the second period. New Hamburg scored their second goal, while Stevenson was in the penalty box. Referee Wayne Timbers and Steve Gervais of Milton handed out 13 penalties to Acton and four to New Hamburg.
Willie "Mouse" Muehlbacher, who had performed adequately up to that point, was lifted by coach Ken Hearn in favor of Craig Weldon early in the third period with the score tied 3-3. Weldon was beaten for the winning goal, after a scramble in front of the net.
Lions appeared to be on their way back to knighting the count once again, when Weldon picked up a silly penalty for tripping a New Hamburg player, as he

Legion playoffs

Pittsburgh blanked Hershey 4-0 in bantam house league playoff action and St. Louis downed Los Angeles 6-2 in midget playoff action, Monday night.
Blaine Cleland, Terry Holmes, Chris Tennant and David Morris scored for Pittsburgh. Holmes also earned three assists, while Wayne Allan collected a pair and Bill McGilloway and Bernie Taylor picked up one apiece.
Rene Schuts and Randy Ferguson potted two goals apiece to pace the St. Louis attack. Ken Jordan and Ted Muehlbacher scored one goal apiece. Schuts, Sid Barends and Jim McNabb notched two assists each and Jordan earned one.
For the Kings, John Jordan and Brian Storey each scored once. Garth Taylor and Gary Masters earned assists.

rounded the Acton cage, leaving his team shorthanded for the final two minutes of the game.
Adding to the disappointment, was the fact Lions had battled back to tie the series with a 1-0 win in New Hamburg the previous night, as Muehlbacher played a sensational game in goal. The game was scoreless until the 13 minute mark on the third period, when Gord Murray scored with Charlie Gidden and Bill Field assisting.
