HEADPINILLITES

Of course the big hillite this week is that "450" game of "Shorty" Lowin. Bowling in the Acton Mixed League last Friday night, the cigar smoking "Shorty" caught fire in his second game and reeled off twelve strikes in a row for the elusive "450"—banquet dates are being posted and to-date we have, Sports Corner Mixed May 1, Mr. and Mrs. of the Caroline Garden Centre, May 8, Industrial-Commercial May 1 and Acton Friends May 29—Revenge is sweet or something, for in the weekly "Best of the Champ" last week, Jack Gould, the cigar smoking Jack Gould, this week, Earle Middleton with 740 and Jack Gould with 791 won the right to challenge Browning for the title. In the championship roll it was Middleton 688, Browning 784 and Jack Gould with 798. That winds it up once again, my friends, so adios, amigos and good-nite, Concord City.

World Prayer service held

By Mrs. R. Wright
Mrs. Kaye was guest speaker at the World Day of Prayer Friday when women of both churches joined in the service taking the theme "A New People for a New Age." Mrs. Kaye stressed the need for more love one for the other. Take the front page of any newspaper and it's filled with violence in every part of the world, but seldom do we read of acts of kindness, only in a remote corner.

Acton bandsmen enjoy concert

A busload of bandsmen from Acton Citizens' Band attended a guest appearance concert of the United States Air Force Band in the Queen Elizabeth building, Exhibition Park, Toronto, Saturday evening.

The band appeared at the American Bandmasters' Association convention, held in Toronto this year. Visitors from the Acton band were impressed with their U. S. counterparts, who held the audience in the palm of their hand with the Padstow Lifeboat March and the stirring Stars and Stripes Forever. The appearance of the U. S. band was also the signal for demonstrators with signs to appear protesting the war in Vietnam, but they dispersed peacefully after making their point with signs such as "Stop the Music-Stop the War."

Confined to hospital in Guelph is Mr. Ed Taylor.
Spring dance
The Eden Mills & District Community Club held their spring dance on Friday evening at the Rod & Gun Club, Eden Mills. Dancing was to the Four Tunes Orchestra. What your dollars do.

As told by Denis Lapalme who was once a crippled child.

I'm sure glad to be able to thank everyone for the help they gave me and crippled children at Easter last time. Three years ago I was in a bad accident. A train ran over my legs, but I stay now, even though I wear artificial legs. I can play hockey, ride a bike, climb trees and play ball.

I'm this year's Jimmy and it's me you see running on the new leader I feel cheques.

Will you please send in your donations to help make the other crippled children better, like me.

I thank very much.

Yours truly
Denis Lapalme
