His loving voice is still,
His hand so often clasped in mine,

For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.

In loving remembrance, wife and family. a38-2501

HARD TO imagine over 60

Actonians cruising the Mediterranean this week!

SEVERAL Members of the Golden Age Club attended the World Day of Prayer, March 5.

A COUNTRY resident reports an unusual sight — a dog and groundhog fighting one morning this week. The groundhog got caught too far from his hole. He finally escaped through a fence.

PEOPLE who have been visiting in other towns and cities mention how much better the Acton streets are plowed and cleared.

MORE INSTANCES of late delivery of the Free Press have been heard of this week. A Toronto subscriber says he got his Free Press Monday, and a postcard from Jerusalem arrived in the same length of time. However he enjoys the paper and adds "I'm glad to get it anytime!"

Like soup nix crisps

The second meeting of "Dairy Fare" was held at the home of vice president Shirley Jocque on Monday, March 1.

As soon as the members arrived they began to cook. Shirley and Lynda Sayers made the corn chowder. Since they have a small club they cut the recipe in half and added more bacon and onion. This gave it a better flavor.

Shirley Jocque demonstrated cheese crisps. They enjoyed the corn chowder but disliked the cheese crisps.

The 4-H pledge was repeated. The roll call was answered to "A popular dairy food in our home." The minutes were read by Shirley Jocque and adopted as read.

They were given diatoms and road notes on milk and health and filled in some missing information.

The next meeting is to be at the home of Mary Ann Freuler. They welcomed a new member Kim Esch.

Cream Dreams new 4-H name

Dublin Junior 4-H club held its second meeting at the home of Mrs. McCarron on March 1. They decided on the club name, the Dublin Junior Cream Dreams. The name will be put on a lime green background with black lettering.

A note was read by Mrs. Wilson about milk and health.

To end the meeting they had some corn chowder made by Cindy Pierce and Linda McTrash. One of the girls thought it tasted gruesome. Most of the other girls liked it.

Third meeting

The third meeting was held at Mrs. van der Eyken's on March 8. They said the pledge and had roll call. Mrs. Wilson read a note on milk and money. They made peanut butter custard and cottage potato salad. Everyone thought it was very tasty.
