HEADPIN HILITES
 Joan Knight, secretary of the Sports Corner League, sporting one of those neck-stretching collars and temporarily out of the bowling action. "Mother" Knight was misled by our Y.B.C. bowlers as well. Cathy Dunn and Assistant Y.B.C. Supervisor Sylvia Meager did a good substitute job — Jake Van Der Kooy of the Heardmore and Big Four leagues. In the hospital having more X-rays taken of his ailing back — couple of more banquet dates, Acton Ladies, May 29th, and Blue Springs Flower Shop, May 29th, and the Bentams on June 29th, is listed reward for "Shorty" Lowin's "450" game was a wrist watch. Gift on "Honest Ben" Rachlin the Jeweller — a new champ appears on the "Beat the Champ" scene. Phil Southon detouring Jack Gould. In the qualifying round, Charlene McCormack with 721 and Southon with 729 were the right in challenge. In the championship round, it was Southon 710, Jack Gould 647 and Charlene McCormack 609 — the sympathy of the Industrial-Commercial and Major leagues is extended to Pat and Gerry "Doc" Post in the tragic loss of their son — that winds it up once again, my love to the ladies and their families and goodnight, Concord City.

YOUTH STRIKES at Bowling
 By Margot Matheson
 March 13: This coming Sunday at the Plantation Bowl in Inlington, our Y.B.C. bowlers, Janet Stacey, Maria Paisley, Wade Knight and Jim Krapek along with Master-Bowlers, Bill Anderson and "Frenchy" Conway will be trying their best in the 1971 Annual Master-Junior 5-Pin Tournament. We all wish them the very best of luck!
 In the Bantam Division the Rabbits hopped up on a one game and totals against the Whales. Cats dug the same to the Sea Horses. Penguins figured they had to be the same and also took one game and totals from the Octopus.
 In the Second Shift the Snails got up some speed and took one game and totals from the Donkeys. Dogs barked up one game and totals against the Kangaroos. Teddy Bears, however, gave that old "Bear Hug" and squeaked two games out of the Crabs.
 The "Top Ten" in the Bantam division were Dolphin Roach 119-228 (343), Brian Larsen 180-150 (330), Susan Thompson 189-154 (323), Paty Storey 161-154 (315), Jennifer Krapek 155-150 (315), Susan Poiry 151-153 (288), Steve Blanchard 143-114 (277), Ricky Van Fleet 134-141 (275), Danny LaMarche 132-129 (281), Karen Tremills 120-125 (253).
 Bowling best over their averages to win the "Orange Crush and Coke" were Michael Lemon, Janet Kuitken, David Drinkwater, Kathy Robinson.
 Our most consistent bowler this week was George Warner who rolled both games of 88 back to back.

Good attendance Golden Age meet

By Mrs. Elsie Reed
 There was a good turnout for the March 2 regular afternoon meeting of the Golden Age Club when better weather and improved walking conditions prevailed.
 It was agreed to host the Spring Zone executive meeting if that was agreeable to the other 10 Clubs in the Zone. It was also decided the club go to the Holy Week service on Palm Sunday, April 4, in a body in Trinity United Church.
Draft-by-laws
 The draft of by-laws for the club as drawn up by the club executive, was read by the secretary and it received the unanimous approval of the members.
 In the absence of the card conveners, Mrs. Millar looked after the euchre. Seven tables of euchre were played with winners Ladies Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Kennedy; gents Mrs. Milne, Mrs. Davidson.
 Mrs. Hargrave convened the crokinole. Winners were ladies Mrs. Warne, Mrs. Spear; gents Mrs. Shoemaker, Mr. Warne.
 March birthdays saluted were Mrs. Robert McEnery, Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Crensay. Mr. and Mrs. Max Milne's 51st wedding anniversary was also recalled.
 Hall cull was answered by 40 members.
 Mrs. DeVries and her helpers served a nice lunch of fruit bread and cookies to conclude a pleasant afternoon.
