HEADPIN HILITES

Latest banquet dates to be posted are, the Major League, May 14, Big Four May 15, latest award to come "Shorty" Lowin's way for trundling that "400" is a gift certificate from Ledger's I.G.A., winners in the Acton Ladies' league draw were Fiona Hodgson and Pete Schipper, Don't get Pete wrong now, he doesn't play in the Acton Ladies' league he just happened to be the holder of a winning dupe—in the "Best of the Champ" there is no doubt who the new champ is. Tom Browning with a triple of 805 and Jack Gould with a 745 won the right to challenge champion Phil Sothan. In the championship roll, Browning caught fire and with a string of 358-346-297 for a 1001 tricono easily dethroned Sothan who posted a 780 and took care of Gould's 760—that winds it up for now, my friends so adios, amigos and goodnight, Concord City.

Park dumping saves money

Hauling snow to Prospect Park instead of dumping sites outside of town has saved Acton taxpayers a lot of money this winter, according to Councillor Orval Chapman.
