Fourteen tables of euchre were in play at the Community Centre on Tuesday night. Prize winners included ladies, Margaret Binnie, Mrs. Snider; gents, F. Robinson, Archie Service with Mrs. R. McEnery, Ed. Drouillard (lucky draw).

Anniversary
A pleasant afternoon and evening was spent in the Community Centre on Saturday when friends and former neighbours called to offer congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hilts. The occasion was their golden wedding anniversary.
Bad roads
The winter holiday has ended and Monday the orange buses began to ply the roads again carrying their cargo of laughing pupils to the various schools. Rough roads and water holes will make poor driving for awhile. Cold north east winds this year will not be very good for syrup making.
Home from Europe
A number of friends from here visited Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McEnery on Saturday night to welcome them home from their holiday in Switzerland.
Passion Sunday
Church service was well attended on Sunday, Passion Sunday. Rev. K. Johnston's discourse touched on the different aspects of Jesus' life - his loneliness, and what amounted almost to his desertion by his friends in his hour of trial, how he sought out men like Zaccheus and changed their lives.
The junior choir rendered a sweet little anthem under Mrs. Kerr.
A goodly number of S.S. children repaired to the basement for their part of the service.
