BEARDMORE April 26: The finals for the Beardmore league was a three game. total pinfall to count affair between the Beamers and the Rollers. In the first game Beamers' roll of 1197 gave them a nice lead over the Rollers 1088. In the second game, Rollers went shead by one pin when they tallied 1125 to Beamers' 1015. In the third and final game, Beamers fell apart and their 874 game no way matched Rollers' 1139 and it was winners and champions, the Rollers, with a total of 3352 as against Beamers 3086. So it is congratulations to Skip Vryenhoek. Bryan Iredale, Phil LeSueur, Dave Smith, Andre Brouillard, Kors Vryenhoek and Lynne Dunn. The big guns in the Rollers' win were, Phil LeSucur 716 (263), Kors Vryenhock 759 (265), Lynne Dunn 679 (260), and Andre' Brouillard 662 (247). Gelting the "mentionables" for Beamers were Arlie White 630 (292). Ches Lewandowski 287, Bob Woodcock 242, Roberta Boyd 234, Helen Brouillard 230, Bill Boyd 212-211.

CAROLINE GARDEN CENTRE April 26: In the final three games of their six game block, total pinfall to count, Zombies came up with three stendy games of 1021-1087-1046 to add to their previous total of 3079 for a 6233 to walk off with the playoff championship, so it's congratulations to Steve Blanchard, Joyce Adams, Al Cloutier, Eleanor Landry, Bill Gentles, June Bousfield and Marg Jeffery. Highlighting the Zombie roll were June Bousfield 804, Marg Jeffery 624, Steve Blanchard 221, Eleanor Landry 220. Hurricanes came up with a total of 6111 to finish second with Lorge Norton 685, Donna Staves 604 and Art Jeffery 678 posting triples. Saphires roll of 6037 was good enough for the third spot with Jens Laustsen 627, Charlie Cheyne 604, Emmy Fryters 201, Gerry Landry 202, Barb Mathies 209, tripling and singling. Eliminators, despite the triples and singles of Roy Swan 666, Inis Norton 658, Grace Robertson 657, Ory Porte 202, Tom Staves 224 and John Shadbolt 203 finished well down in the fourthslut. In the "consolation," Intruders swamped the Marauders with a total of 5735 to 5479. Jules Fryters 717, Bert Robertson 668 and Ruby Laustsen 641 featured Intruders' games. Best efforts for Marauders came from Mary Cloutier 671, Clarence Haringa

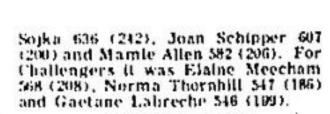

226 and Bob Adams 214. BLUE SPRINGS FLOWER SHOP April 27: In the first three games of a six game block, total pinfall to count, three teams Coral Bells, Trilliums and Bleeding Hearts are separated by the close margin of four pins. Coral Bells, paced by Dorcen Mstchell 611 (225), Sandy McGraw 593 (214), Helen Brouillard 525 (185), and Norma Titus 525 (203) hold down the lop spot with 2462. Trilliums with 2461 are breathing down Coral Bells' necks. Elsie Edmondson with 654 (232), Marj Middleton 545 (251) and Adele Nolan 479 (172) headed up Trilliums' roll. Bleeding Hearts with a roll of 2458 are very much in contention. Marilyn Kunz 522 (223), frene Noftall 494 (176) and Jill McLaren 488 (193) were top trio for the "flearts". Lupins, whose roll of 2376 was highlighted by the solos of Stelly Bender 230, Mari Lockrey 241.

Delores Colborne 203-218 and Wannella Smith 205, are in the fourth spot. Holding down the fifth spot with a roll of 2354 are Petunian. Top trie for Petunias in this go were Agnes McGinnis 539 (213), Lynda Harris 529 (197) and Laura Treble 469 (172). Larkspurs who trail the field with 2219 are capable of coming up with a reversal of form and get back into contention in the final three games. Best efforts posted by Larkspurs were Carolyne Williamson 501 (174), Lil Wagner 458 (166) and Ellie Smith 455 (164).

ACTON LADIES

April 28: Speybill Farms, who went into the final three game block of their six game block, total pinfall to count with a 159 pin lend, were never headed in the last three games and their 5390 total was good enough to wrap up playoffs, Camen Boutique who made a determined bid for the title, finished up with 5317. In the next order came I.G.A. with 5198, Becker's Milk with 5137, Family Store with 4945 and Nielsen's Clothing with 4345. Best individual efforts were, for Speyhill Forms, Linda McDonald 644 (300). Edna Nellis S19 (211), Betty Cheyne 507 (180). For Cameo Boutique, June Hunter 636 (291), Donna Manes 625 (232), Mary Papillon 538 (196), For 1.G.A., Marion Storey 704 (293), Marion Hunter 561 (198), Audrey Youmans 543 (209). For Becker's Milk, Grace Robertson 842 (225), Bea Anderson 565 (200), Linda Pierce 516 (191). For Family Store Nan Hurst 606 (277), Donna Richardson 555 (239), June Payne 490 (181). For Nielsen's Clothing Fran Pierce 488 (178), Shirley Rosenbersky 452 (155), Chalene Smith 427 (148). To wind it up we offer to the "Farmerettes" of Speyhill Farms, May Swackhammer, Betty Cheyne, Edna, Nellis, Linda McDonald, Pat Dawkins and Flora llodgson, winners and champions, congratulations.

April 29: Looks as if the gals on the Thursday afternoon league willhave a rousing go for playoff honors. Drifters with a three game total of 2789 (this the first three games of a six game block, total plas to count), have the narrowest of a lead, one pin, over Alley Hoppers. A neat 1020 second the Drifters roll were June Bousfield 638 (237), Colleen Robb 552 (199), Sandra McGraw 538 (191) and Donna Staves 534 (232). Katie "Mother" McGilloway rates a big assist in this one for Drifters. "Mother's" 507 triple came in mighty handy. The big guns for "Hoppers" were Joan Why (that's a name, not a question) 587 (225) and Terry Dawson 500 (205). Goof Offs came up with a big 1049 third game to move into contention with a total of 2730. Pacing this roll were Annelle St. Pierre 549 (210), Shirley Thomson 503 (190) and Audrey Blanchard 411 (169). Freakouts bowled steady for a total of 2625 and are looking for a stronger finish to possibly take the championship. Freakouts top trio were Joyce Adams 585 (201), Marie Chapman 528 (193) and Cora Walters 514 (187). In the "Consolation" Hopefuls enjoy a healthy lead over the Challengers, 2868 to 2694. Top trundlers for Hopefuls were Renate

ACTON FRIENDS April 29. We have to apologize for no news of the Acton Friends league this week. Somehow the records of the night's activities were lost, strayed or stolen, so we are at a loss to report on their bowling. Sorry amigos.

BIG FOUR April 30. The Big Four's playoff is under way and there is very little to choose between Hot Shots and Red Wings at this stage. After the first three games, Hot Shots are leading with a pinfall of 2657 but the Red Wings are crowding them with a 2634. Happy Gang are off the pace with a 2442 and Fireballs will have to get fired up to improve on their 2250 total. Still, with three games to go anything can, and probably will, happen. Hot Shots roll was paced by Henry Van Stralen 648 (236), "Big Jake" Van Der Kuny 580 (228) and "Little John" Van Der Kooy 523 (212). Winging the top tricounts for Red Wings were Bryan Hammond 731 (262), Doug Ferrier 554 (209) and Larry Douglas 480 (195). Happy Gong's trundling was headed up by Bob Krul 588 (242), Harry Ensing 533 (192) and Dolf Van Arragon 497 (189). Best for Fireballs were Floyd Hammond 565 (216), Renee Voskamp 511 (219) and Sonya Wyga 434 (180).

MAJOR May 2: Well the Major league playoff is now history and it's Acton Meadows repeating their triumph of last season to emerge as champions. Scenic Pools who won the right to challenge the Acton Meadows gave the "Golfers" a real run for their money. Acton Meadows, paced by Jim Timleck's 324 came up with a big first game, 1345 which overshadowed the Scenics' 1160. With Tom Browning rolling 307 and Jack Gould a 300 along with Bill Anderson's 320 the "Scenies" evened the count when their roll of 4363 swamped the "Meadows" 1141. With Anderson's 305 roll heading up the "Scenics" 1295 count in the third, the "Scenics" rooters were jubilant when it put their team one up as the "Meadows" chalked up 1161. Despite Browning's 311 roll in the fourth game, Scenic Pools' total of 1168 did not measure up to the "Meadows" 1221 and it was all even and a new ball game. The pace was beginning to tell somewhat in the fifth game but the steady bowling of the "Meadows" for a 1263 took care of the Scenies' 1175 and it was one up for the "Mendows". Came the sixth and what proved to be the final game. Scenic Pools came up with a steady roll of 1255 but the "Meadows" got behind the 373 leadoff game of Don Wilkes and their 1347 total got them the game, the best four out of seven game rolloff, and the championship. So to the champions, Acton Meadows, Don Wilkes, Mac Herrington, Ron Shannon, Jim Timleck, Ray Toth, Wayne Mason, Jim Bullough, congratulations. Would not be fitting to close out the season without tossing an orchid to the Scenle Pools. From being a stumbling also ran, to a championship contender in one season rates a bow. Well done, fellows.

HEADPIN HILITES

Two banquets have been held to-date, the industrial Commercial and the Sports Corner Mixed. From all reports both were a rousing success. Speaks well for the executive of both leagues. At the Industrial-Commercial banquet the annual election of officers took place with following officers guiding the reins for the 71-72 season. President Pete Homer, vicepresident Don Harris, secretary, Dave McMillan, treasurer Andre' Conway, Congratulations gentlemen, may you have another successful season - - - amusing highlight to the major league playoff. Pete Schipper bossman of the Scenic Pools feams made a pregame rolloff wager, the wager being that if Scenic Pools did not win the championship, Acton Meadows could trim his flowing locks. No sooner was the sixth and deciding game over than Don Wilkes produced a pair of shears and like Samson of Hibical history, Pete was shorn of his tresses. Understand wife Joan approved of the shearing - - - that winds it up once again, except to warn the good people of Erin that the Heardmore league will be descending on them this Saturday eve for their annual banquet at the Erin Legion . . . so adios amigos, and goodnight Concord City.

MARAUDERS walked off with the captain Valerie Bateman, Cliff Creasey, championship in the Y.B.C. junior bowling Cindy Thornhill, Gary Pickles, Colleen division. Team members I. to r. Ken Swan, Spielvogel and coach Wayne Deforest.
