

Join rug makers

By Mrs. A. Benton
Mesdames Patterson, Piehl and Cummings of Limehouse joined the busful of rug makers who visited Bittermere's at Vineland on Saturday.

Family day service
Ronnie Appleyard, Ronnie Ingles and Joan Lindsay of the Sunday School took part in the Christian Family Day service at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday.

The W. I. met in Limehouse Memorial Hall for a short business meeting on Wednesday evening and then addressed the June 9 anniversary invitations. Mesdames Noble, Anderson and Benton were appointed delegates to the district annual meeting in Acton on May 19.

Congratulations to the primary and junior choirs of Limehouse public school on winning awards at the recent music festival.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Foster at Kirkfield for ten days or so.

Trailer time

A district woman, who advertised a tent trailer for sale in last week's Free Press, was delighted to report she "lost count" of the calls after 75! And the trailer was sold to the very first caller!

Eden Mills

Eden House residents Brownie tour in news

By Mrs. R. Wright
Eden Mills Presbyterian Church Ladies' Aid and W.M.S. met at the Gilbertson home for their monthly meeting. Invitations were received to attend a luncheon at Sodom Church also one at St. David's in Campbellville in the near future. The main topic of business was arrangements for their lilac Tea and Bazaar in June, also the annual church cleaning late this month.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Gilbertson for the use of her home.

Auxiliary meeting
A general meeting of the Eden House Auxiliary was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Hill, Rockwood, to complete arrangements to form entertainments for the patients there. This will include visitations, car rides, birthday parties, picnics and a strawberry social in June. Seven churches were represented.

Brownie tour
The Brownies had a very enjoyable visit to Mrs. Shoemaker's doll collection this week near Rockwood. They saw many antique toys and foreign dolls, some of which are very valuable. Recent work has resulted in several new badges and golden bars.

To raise money for Brownies and Guides the Mothers Auxiliary are holding a rummage and bake sale in the Community Hall on Wednesday, May 19, at 7:30 p.m.
