

Mills - Wright wedding in Eden Mills May 15

A candlelight wedding ceremony united in marriage Patricia Lillian Wright R.N. of Hamilton and John Richard Mills of Guelph. Eden Mills Presbyterian church was decorated with seven tiered candelabra and ivy for the seven o'clock wedding on Saturday evening, May 15.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Beryl Wright of Eden Mills and nurses at Hamilton Civic Hospital.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Mills, Guelph, is a fourth year graduate of the University of Guelph.

Rev. D. R. Sinclair performed the ceremony and Mrs. Margaret Blacklock was organist.

The bride wore a traditional white princess style wedding gown of silk organza, the front panel decorated with pearl and rhinestone appliques, and a train falling from the back. A Dutch girl style bonnet of German lace, pearls and rhinestones held her three-tier shoulder-length veil. She carried yellow sweetheart roses and ivy.

The bridal attendants were a friend Mrs. Karen Sakala, Toronto, as matron of honor; Miss Joanne Wright, Eden Mills, sister of the bride, and Miss Catherine Mills, Guelph, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids. They wore multi-hued floral green gowns with long cuffed sleeves and carried yellow and sweetheart roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Robert Wright, groomsmen were Peter Mills, brother of the groom and the ushers were Bob Wright, brother of the bride and Dennis Weller, friend of the groom.

Reception follows

The reception was held at the Guelph Rod and Gun Club. The bride's mother wore a yellow floral dress and coat with yellow sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother wore a blue ensemble with blue accessories and pink sweetheart roses.

The couple left for Niagara Falls, the bride wearing white with black, red and white trim, red accessories and red roses.

They are living at 325 James St. S., Apt. 302, Hamilton.

Many guests

Guests were present from Detroit, Toronto, Whitby, Thunder Bay, Guelph, Eden Mills, Kingston, Hamilton, Galt, Preston and Weston.

Among them were special guests, the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wright, and grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bain and Mrs. E. A. Hammond.

Pre-wedding events

A trousseau tea was held May 2 at the home of the bride's mother. A community shower was held April 14 at Eden Mills Presbyterian church. A miscellaneous shower was held by an aunt of the groom, Mrs. Dorothy Bantock, Toronto, April 18. Miss W. Powell of Hamilton was hostess for a miscellaneous shower April 20. A personal shower was held by Mrs. Susan Burdett of Hamilton April 25. On April 30 Mrs. Gerry Vandergrift of Guelph was hostess for a personal shower.

Golden Agers view Senior Citizen units with mixed feelings

By Mrs. Elsie Reed

A good attendance of Golden Agers enjoyed a fine program on Tuesday last, convened by Mrs. Near and Mrs. McCutcheon.

The orchestra led off with plenty of their old-time lively dance tunes, "Golden Slippers", "Turkey in the Straw" etc. and returned later with more of the same: "Waltz Quadrille," on request "Coming through the Rye" and others, which kept the toes tapping and hands clapping in time.

Encore reading

Mrs. Bruce gave a reading "Weddings are Funny" and as a demanded encore "Spring-time Cold".

Mrs. Near gave thoughts on the Lord's Prayer. Beautiful pictures were shown by Mrs. Wm. McDonald that her sister-in-law had taken on a trip through New Zealand, Australia, Hong-Kong, etc. These included many marvellous pictures of flowers as well as interesting pictures of animals and birds.

Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Cossar will be Entertainment Conveners for June and July.

Mrs. Herrington and her helpers served a lovely lunch of sandwiches and cookies. Lunch committee for June will be Mrs. Hargrave, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Cleve and Mrs. Cossar.

Bus to Oakville

Jack Hargrave agreed to look after the bus arrangements for the Zone Picnic at Coronation Park, Oakville, June 22. It was decided to pay for the bus with club funds. A collection of 25c is taken from each member at the picnic and each one brings lunch, beverage, eating tools etc.

It will be a shorter day than the usual sight-seeing trips—the bus will leave later and return earlier. Many prizes will be given out and it is a good chance to meet old friends and to make new ones. If the weather is good it will be an enjoyable day beside the lake.

Mixed feelings

The Golden Agers, and other senior citizens in town are considering the belated start on the senior citizens housing units with mixed feelings. Some who signed up for a unit over three years ago are now unable to care for themselves in such a dwelling with steps, and the distance from stores, banks, post office, bus etc. to contend with.

Earle Marshall was able to be out after a lengthy absence through illness. Mrs. Jack Creasey spent some time in Guelph General but is now home recuperating. Mr. Ed Healey is still in Georgetown hospital but hopes to be home soon.

Next meeting will be June 1 at 2 p.m. in Luxton Hall. Be sure to get your name down then for the bus to the Zone Picnic.
