FAIRY LAKE is ahead of Loch Ness—our powerful tail thrashed swirls in the water and its long scaly body, big dorsal fin, multi-colored markings, beady eyes and large broke the surface of the water this week right at the edge of the lake, to gobble a monstrous mouthful of tadpoles and small fish. ## Ebenezer

Old and young in area report

By Mrs. Ron McLean
Fond grandparents and great-grandparents attended Ebenezer, when four babies were christened. They were Brent William, son of Bill and Susie (Helen Richardson) Davies, Kevin Douglas and Sonya Lorraine, twin son and daughter of Doug and Lorraine (Richardson) Black, and Robert James, son of David and Sandra (Blyth) Boles.

87th birthday
Mr. Percy Kitching, Ebenezer's oldest active member, celebrated his 87th birthday by attending the wedding of Winnifred Dunbar and Charles Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Denis Clegg visited the Indianapolis speedway races recently.

S.S. program
Ken and Ross Hewer accompanied the singing in Sunday School on their guitars. Darlene Hewer read the scripture and Norman Moore led in prayer. Mrs. Joss presided.

Ebenezer's biennial Cemetery Memorial Service is planned for June 20.

Attitude important
Mr. Finley's sermon dealt with the beatitudes of the merciful obtaining mercy. The way we look at life and people is our attitude. The beatitudes are attitudes to life. Jesus meant an intelligent understanding in kindness.

If mercy is used only in a sentimental way, it is not as good as when mingled with understanding.

Let us be kindly in our judgment. A school teacher upgraded his pupils, so all would pass. In that way, they were encouraged to greater effort.

Downgrade people
We have a tendency to downgrade other people and nations—people with long hair, people different from us.

There is the story of the child out for a drive with his mother. He asked "Where are all the stupid dumb cluck drivers, Mommie?" She said, "Oh, they're just out when your father is driving."

Bring out best
The way of Jesus is to accept us as we are and bring out the best in us. He said, "You are a rock, Peter," and Peter became a rock, granite, dependable.

We should train ourselves to see good in people.

Forgiving spirit
Another quality of mercy is a forgiving spirit. The mind thrives when kindly forgiveness is practiced. It is healthy to get rid of thoughts of revenge. If you show kindness, it will come back to you.

There was the old doctor in the horse and buggy days: After his wife's death, he knew he hadn't much longer to live. He took out all his accounts receivable, marked them paid and sent them out to his patients. After his death, his loving friends, with no money for a headstone, simply took the plaque from his office, "John Bailey, M.D. Office Upstairs."
