By Mrs. R. Wright
Good weather prevailed for the Lilac Tea and Bazaar held by the Ladies of Eden Mills Presbyterian Church Saturday. Pouring tea for the afternoon were Mrs. Millson from Stone Church; Mrs. Norman Marshall, Eden Mills United; Mrs. Blacklock and Mrs. Ramsey. The tea-table was tastefully decorated with lilac candles in candelabras. The whole theme in color was lilac on all the tables. Convener for the tea table was Mrs. R. Blacklock. Mrs. W. Lasby greeted the visitors and opened the bazaar with a few chosen words. Other conveners were bake table Mrs. W. McLean and Mrs. G. Blacklock; country store Mrs. W. Gilbertson and Mrs. I. Buchan; aprons Mrs. J. Gilbertson and fancywork Mrs. R. Wright. Mrs. Anna Wilson took the receipts.

Picnic, wedding, W.I. in news

By Mrs. A. Benton
Miss Ivens and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Grieg of Brantford called on the Patterson's on May 23. The Patterson's visited Mr. and Mrs. N. Hodgson at Brantford on Sunday June 6. Mr. David Roughley was home from Toronto during the weekend.

Communion services
Rev. F. N. Young conducted communion services at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday. It was the last Sunday for the church school until September, so the congregation and Sunday School children gathered at 1 p.m. for a picnic lunch. It was such a success that several suggested such should be held more often. During the pre-lunch interval the children enjoyed games and races on the lawn.

meeting in Limehouse Memorial Hall on Thursday evening.

Eye injury
We hope that Morris Anderson is soon well after an eye injury which confined him to hospital in Georgetown and Brampton.

Degree, W.I. news

By Mrs. R. Shortill

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson and family attended convocation at University of Waterloo on Saturday, May 29, to witness the conferment of degrees. Their son, Allan Neil Jamieson was one of the graduates in chemical engineering, his degree being presented by the chairman of that department.

Overseas trip
Allan Snow and Robert Vinall left on Saturday by plane from Milton to Britain. The boys plan on spending some time overseas.

The W.I. meeting for June took the form of a bus trip and tour of Halton Museum. An interesting afternoon was enjoyed by those who were able to go.

Mrs. Eileen McEnery suffered a painful accident on Friday when her hand got caught between two rocks almost severing her fifth finger.

Mr. F.W. Shortill has not been in good health this week.

Worthwhile afternoon
Bales of used clothing were packed by the supply committee of the U.C.W. this week. They were distributed for welfare.

Also a box of medical supplies was packed for the leprosy hospitals. Several converted hospital gowns had been brought in by members.

The same day several of the hymn books were repaired.

All in all, a busy morning was spent by 4 of the ladies a worth while contribution to the work of join the Guide company in the fall.

Thursday, June 3, was the last regular meeting until September except for a special hike and picnic in Rockwood Saturday, June 12, which will include an enrolment of new Brownies in a real forest setting.

Scottish guest
Mr. and Mrs. John Turner's guests were Mrs. B. Thompson, Sterling, Scotland; Mr. and Mrs. J. Gibson, Scarborough.

Paisley Memorial Church, Guelph, held their annual congregational picnic last week at Eden Mills Lutheran camp grounds.

Wife takes over
The congregation of Eden Mills

Presbyterian Church had an unexpected treat at the service Sunday morning, when Mrs. Sinclair, wife of Rev. D. H. Sinclair, conducted the service when Mr. Sinclair was confined with the flu. The guest was Mr. John Vanmessel, Kitchener, who with Rev. Sinclair's son had toured Europe recently and spoke of the habits and culture of the people in different countries. Their trip took them to Asia, Pakistan, India, Singapore, Hong Kong and Japan and they spent some time with missionaries, friends of the families.

Comin's and Goin's

It's probably before your time but the Rockwood United Church will soon by 103 years old and, on Sunday June 13, at 11.15 a.m. there will be an Anniversary Service conducted by the congregation's new minister Rev. Ralph C. Williams. "Faith in the Future" will be his topic for the day and special music has been planned for the occasion. The Church Hall and lawn will set the scene for the after-service follow up of lunch and social time and everyone is cordially welcomed to attend. So let's get together, folks, we'll see you Sunday and for that day we'll all go United.

Don't forget, everybody. It's free, free, free admission to the greatest show of 'em all. Rockwood's biggest little Carnival where pony rides, frog jumping contests, animal fair, clowning, give-aways, competitions, and games, together with the Little Canadian Open Horseshoe Pitching Tournament drawing in pitchers from everywhere in North America will be topped with a 9 p.m. outdoors dance at the Centennial School Grounds where talent galore will pitch in at the intermission time of Lou Deebanks and his Merry Trio. So get with it, folks, the strings on your fingers and pencil mark your toes, you've got a date with Rockwood on Saturday, June 19, where a fantastic parade will start off the proceedings at 1.30 p.m. Remember it's the Main Highway to the Ball Park and on that date this is where it's at - see you!

The fun of it all! The Whopping success of the Stone United Church Bazaar held last Friday night at Jack Peart's farm on Highway 24 wasn't completely dependent on the sales that were made. But it was Eramosa residents meeting up with friends from the south end of the township, or from Rockwood and vicinity. It was really great as everyone bantered and cantered from place to place as veteran auctioneer Max Storey cajoled his way through dollars and dollars worth of jiggers and junk literally transforming crockery pans into pieces of elegant dated china ware. Fun time as farmers sold dogs which were presenting problems with their sheep to sympathetic neighbours who would give him a good home. Fun time as residents lashed their community friend who looked for their votes in the coming election. Sad time as hopeful aspirants were downed by dealers who had come to outbid them on their favourite round tables and fern stands. Coffee was sold and everyone at the Stone United was involved in the affair. What they made on the sale was, besides the money they raised, many new friends and hopes for another successful auction another year.

Isn't it terrific? The Nobles on Mackenzie Street have another little protege since Monday at 12.45 when the Guelph General was the place of the happy event. Glen, Yvonne, Heather, and Elizabeth have a new sister who weighs 7 lbs. 8 1/2 ounces and Rockwood sends congratulations to Bob and Viv and are happy that mother and daughter are well and hardy. Nice going Viv!

June is Hydro month and in Rockwood it's an electric affair when the local commission will celebrate with a draw for Rockwood citizens at the Eramosa Township Carnival day on June 19. An electric tooth brush for kids up to high school age, a college lamp for older students and an electric kettle or can opener to the adult whose name appears on the ticket drawn from the Hydro barrel. "Hydro is yours, use it" say the Hydro Electric Commission advertising slogans and local Chairman, Charlie O'Brien, hopes that Rockwood villagers will apply it to everyday living.

Hey, look what else is happening in the village. The weekend move of the Gerald Carter family to the apartment behind the former Carney Hardware establishment heralds the new "Nancy's Variety" store which will open sometime within the next ten days. Royal Dairy products will be the speciality of the store with variety items including everything from groceries to cold meats and bacon. It's a whole new enterprise for the couple with five young children and, if they work together it's a Carter hope that it will become an efficient family affair. Lots of luck Gerry and Nancy, we hope your new venture Receives B.A.

Congratulations to Mr. Ralph McKeown, principal of Limehouse Public School who graduated on May 24 with B.A. degree from University at Waterloo.
