Midgets "masters" Georgetown nine

Thompson Fuels' midgets made a successful minor baseball debut, when they clobbered Georgetown 14-1 in an abbreviated four inning contest at Prospect Park last Wednesday night.

Triples by shortstop Gary Masters and first baseman Danny Allan helped the locals to score three runs in the first inning.

Hit homers

In the second inning, Masters and right fielder Ken Hurren both homered, as Acton chalked up eight more runs. Allan's two bagger highlighted a three run third inning for Acton.

Georgetown counted their only run in the top of the second, without benefit of a hit.

Chris hurts

Righthander Chris Tennant hurled a masterful game for Acton, limiting the visitors to just one hit, a fourth inning single by Specie. He struck out nine and walked five.

Other Acton hitters were Ken Hurren, who singled in addition to belting a homer, and Steve Marshall and Bill McGilloway who each singled once.

Acton: Steve Marshall 3b, Bill McGilloway lf, Dan McGilloway 2b, Ken Hurren rf, Gary Masters ss, Danny Allan lb, Glen McKenzie cf, Jim McNabb c, Chris Tennant p, Roland McCulloch.

Sunshiners win at CNE

Two students from the Sunshine School for the Mentally Retarded at Hornby were winners in the all-Ontario School Art and Handicraft Competition sponsored by the Women's division of the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto.

Tommy Cramer, 12, and Charles Aldwell, 16, submitted entries in the picture making and simple crafts categories, and both youngsters emerged victorious. Tommy's picture making project was a farm scene including fences, barn and fields, made from cloth. Charles submitted a carry-all bag made from wool.

Entries were received for 62 categories in the competition. Winning entries will be on display at the C.N.E. from Aug. 19 through to Sept. 6.

Grade 13 student Joe Petric has been chosen Acton District High School's outstanding all-round student for this year.

In addition to carrying a heavy academic workload, Joe served as president of this year's student's council. He'll be attending Queen's University in Kingston in the fall.

The award was one of nine handed out last week, as regular classes ended.

Top athletes

Phil Morris and Shirley Mitchell were selected outstanding athletes of the year in a vote of the school's coaches. Phil also won awards for outstanding accomplishment in track and field and senior boys' basketball. Shirley was chosen most valuable player on the senior girls' basketball squad.

Phil was top man of the school's senior cross-country team in the fall, leading scorer on the senior basketball team in the winter and the school's top track and field man in the spring. He recently won the 800 metres event in both the Halton and Halton-Peel championships.

Besides her efforts with the senior girls' basketball team, Shirley represented the school well as a shot putter in the Halton and Halton-Peel meets. She placed second in the Halton event and third in the Halton-Peel meet.

Brothers Craig and Randy Weldon both copped individual awards, Craig for his brilliant play in goal for the CWOSSA "B" champion ADHS hockey team and Randy as the school's best soccer player.

Awards for excellence in junior basketball went to Steve Van Fleet and Mary Fran Marcoux. Bob Andrews received the cross-country trophy.

Grade 12 student Barbara Beier accepted the Underwood Challenge Trophy as the school's top typist.

Let's Play Bridge

by Bill Coats

Half the battle in bridge is a thing called tempo. It's not just sufficient to take tricks but often it's when you take your tricks that count. Here is an example from a game earlier this year at the Acton Bridge Club.

South dealt with neither side vulnerable.

NORTH
S-Q J 8 8 8
H-10 7
D-K J 10 6 3
C-4

WEST
S-A 4 3 2
H-Q J 8 4 3
D-A 5
C-Q 9

EAST
S-K 7 5
H-6 5 2
D-8 7 4 2
C-K 5 3

SOUTH
S-10
H-A K 9
D-Q 8
C-A J 10 8 7 6 2

The bidding:
SOUTH WEST NORTH EAST
1 C 1 H 1 S PASS
2 C 2 H 3 D PASS
3 N T. ALL PASS PASS ALL PASS

Opening lead — four of hearts.

South probably should not have pushed on to game opposite the misfit that North had announced but who can argue with success?

Very fortunate

Declarer was very fortunate on the opening lead. When East failed to produce an honor, declarer is assured of three heart tricks. He should be able to get five club tricks so another trick must be found in order to make three no trump.

If declarer attacks clubs immediately he will go down to defeat. The defence will get the lead twice and clear the heart suit. The best plan is to keep the opponents in the dark as to what is going on. This is where the tempo or timing comes in.

At trick two declarer should lead the nine of diamonds. It would be a most exceptional defender who would play his ace in West's position. Once a diamond has been stolen, declarer should revert to his club suit. He plays the jack and West will win.

West continues with the heart queen, won by declarer's ace.

The ace of clubs followed by a low club will clear the suit. Fortunately, East has another heart and will probably clear the suit. Most defenders would be reluctant to break the spade suit at this point.

Declarer scrambles home with nine tricks before the defense discovers that it has five winners.

If declarer had tried clubs first, before stealing a diamond trick, the defense would have ample opportunity to signal their high cards and West would hold on to his two aces plus some good hearts.

Last week's winners at the Acton Bridge Club were: first, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Heller; tied for second, Betty Ashley and Kay Campbell with Harry Arbie and Bill Coats.
