

ROBERT LITTLE school students spent part of last week sketching historic buildings around town. This group of girls chose St. Alban's Church as their subject. —(Staff Photo)

SOLEMN confirmation service at Trinity United Church was conducted by the Rev. Gordon Turner Sunday morning. Those confirmed were Heather Buchanan, Kathy Dills, Gail Douglas, Janis Hilfman, Karen Hilfman, Lone Jensen, Ruth Kirkwood, Beverly Leitch, Leah Leslie, Sharon Leslie, Carol Pickles, Barbara Reed, Norman Saunders, Pat Sampson, Susan Shoemaker, Deborah Slingerland, Kathy Slingerland, and Sandra Van Fleet. Class co-leader Mrs. Lloyd Hilfman and Stewart Reed, recording secretary of the official board, took part in the ceremony.—(Staff Photo)

Obituary

Herbert Fryer buried at Fairview

After an illness of several months, Herbert Fryer of 4 Victoria Ave., Acton, died at his home on June 3. Funeral service for Mr. Fryer was held at the Rumley-Shoemaker funeral home on June 5 conducted by the Rev. Walter Fosbury. Interment followed in Fairview cemetery. Pallbearers were Wilmer, Walter, Kenneth and Jeffrey Fryer, Charles Shultis and Elvey Gordon, all nephews.

Mr. Fryer greatly enjoyed the outdoors and had an abundant sense of humor.

Attend consecration

The Rev. Jack Bothwell was consecrated as the co-adjutor bishop of Niagara in an impressive ceremony at Christ church cathedral, Hamilton, Sunday.

Relatives and representatives of St. Alban's church were among those present — his cousin Mrs. Ted Hansen and Mr. Hansen, the Rev. Harry Dawson and Mrs. Dawson, lay delegates to synod Mrs. J. Rol, Bill Denny and Mrs. V. Bristow.

When the ceremony was shown on television again later that day, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, Mr. Dawson and a former rector the Rev. Ritchie McMurray were plainly visible.

The new co-adjutor bishop's brother, the Rev. Bill Bothwell, read the lesson. Mr. Bothwell was the guest speaker here during Holy Week.

Obituary

Harold Kennedy Detroit resident

A resident of Detroit, Michigan, Harold Francis Kennedy died in the Alpha-Manor Nursing home there on June 7. He had been in failing health for the past two years.

Son of John Kennedy and Sarah McKague of Acton, he was born March 31, 1900. He attended Acton public and high schools. He had lived in Michigan for many years but was a frequent visitor to his home town. He was a retired railroad clerk.

He was always a keen sports fan, and in earlier years in Acton played goal for Acton hockey teams and catcher for local ball teams. Lately he was an avid fan of the Detroit Tigers.

Funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Joseph's church Friday morning, June 11 by the Rev. V. J. Morgan and interment followed in St. Joseph's cemetery. Pallbearers were Tinnie Masales, Stu Lantz, Pat

Waldie, Andy Williams, Vern Wheeler and Denis Gibbons. Mr. Kennedy is predeceased by sisters Mrs. James Cooney (Maria) and Mrs. John Wilson (Margaret) and brother Joseph. He is survived by his nephew, Jack Cooney of Acton.

At Knox College

Last week the Free Press wrongly changed the denomination of the husband of university graduate Vivian Nicholson. He is studying theology at Knox College, Toronto. Sorry.

It's much better to sit tight than attempt to drive in that condition.

Christening at St. Alban's

On Sunday, June 6, Paul Philip, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Klassen, Lake Echo, Halifax county, Nova Scotia, was christened by the Rev. Harry Dawson at the church of St. Alban the Martyr. Godparents for Paul were Mr. and Mrs. D. L. While, Georgetown, Mr. and Mrs. G. Paul, Acton and Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Dawson, Hamilton.

Following the christening Mr. and Mrs. White entertained at their home in Georgetown. Guests attended from Acton, Fergus, Hamilton, Peterborough and Kitchener.

Rectors exchange

Last Sunday the Rev. Alex Dobson, rector of Arthur and Grand Valley and the Rev. Harry Dawson exchanged pulpits. This coming Sunday the parish picnic will be held following the 10.30 a.m. service.

Another cemetery problem

Esqueing Council has another cemetery to think about now. A letter advised them that the cemetery on Lot 13, Con. 7, should be switched from an entry in the registry office to a little deed but councillors failed to grasp the significance of the letter from the Department of Financial and Commercial Affairs. They asked the clerk to write the clerk for more information.

Councillor Len Coxie said the cemetery was in good state of repair thanks to the efforts of the W.I. and the boy scouts. When he passed there on his way to council that evening some scouts were out cutting the grass.

Council recently received a letter from the same Department informing them that an old cemetery at the corner of Steeles Ave. and the Eighth Line is in bad shape and responsibility rests with the municipality to see to its restoration.
