

Limehouse W.I. 50th anniversary

By Mrs. Art Benton
Members of Limehouse Women's Institute celebrated the 50th anniversary of the organization with a dinner served by Limehouse Presbyterian W.A. and program following in the church the evening of June 9.

President Mrs. F. T. C. Brown was hostess and led in the W. I. Ode and Grace, proposed a toast to the Queen and introduced the guests at the head table. Mrs. Roughley proposed a toast to Women's Institutes every where, to which Mrs. R. C. Moffatt of Guelph, our Provincial Board member replied.

Longest-time member
Mrs. James Noble, our longest time member, cut the birthday cake, decorated in the W.I. colors of gold and cornflower blue by Mrs. Frank Chisholm of Hornby. These same colors were repeated in the table decorations and bouquets, and the carnation and ribbon corsages worn by members of the local W.I. and visiting officers.

The program, held in the church sanctuary, was chaired by the president, who announced "The Hymn of All Nations" and welcomed the guests from 13 other Halton branches and others. Members of session of the church, Mrs. J. W. O'vichon, welcomed visitors to the church building.

Light candles
Past, Present and Future of our W.I. were represented by blue candles in a candelabra, being lighted by Mesdames Kirkpatrick, Brown and Booth.

Secretary Mrs. N. Anderson read names of those former members responding to invitations and sending their good wishes.

Observe silence
Names of over 40 former members, who have passed away during the fifty years, were read by Mrs. A. W. Benton, who conducted the "In Memoriam" service. Following a period of silence in their memory, she read an appropriate poem and announced the hymn "Faith of Our Fathers."

Mrs. M. Ellerby, a former president and secretary, read a short history of our second 25 years.

Music and fun
Miss Norine Noble obliged with lovely piano solos, Portrait of Gershwin and La Cloche des Matines. Mrs. Cromar, well-known elocutionist, handed out her usual humor in "The Jew who went to the Wedding, Shnorin" as well as I Have to Live With Myself.

Sisters, Mrs. W. Karn and Miss Mary Lou Brown sang much appreciated numbers, When Irish Eyes Are Smiling, Meet me in St. Louis, In the Good Old Summer Time, and Smile Awfully.

25 year award
In a surprise presentation, Mrs. W. Mitchell, our forty-eight year member, presented Mrs. J. Roughley's 25 year life membership pin and certificate.

Happy birthday was sung for Mrs. R. C. Moffatt and Mrs. W. Stringer, whose special day it was.

Changing world
Guest speaker, Mrs. R. Weber, secretary-treasurer of Officers' Conference of Bloomingdale was introduced by Halton County president Mrs. George Henderson. Mrs. Weber spoke of our changing world. She said we had 50 good years behind us, but we would find changes in the next 50. Let everyone sweep in front of his own door and the world will be clean. With the fortitude and determination of the past 50 she said, we could look forward.

She recited the poem Do You Just Belong and advised us to read it at every meeting to help develop more useful citizens. She objects to the expression, Generation Gap, which should

Sore skunk bites boy

A young son of a Georgetown area family has learned never to tangle with wild or stray animals again. The youngster saw a skunk meandering by his yard and proceeded to tease the animal and hit it with a stick, before being sprayed and bitten by the cross animal. Milton OPP investigated the mishap and could not determine whether or not the animal was rabid, as it had left the scene when police arrived.

Under the circumstances of the occurrence police believe the animal was retaliating for its own protection.

Review collect

Keep us O Lord from pettiness, let us be large in thought, in word and deed. Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self seeking; May we put away all pretence and meet each other face to face, without self pity and without prejudice. May we never be hasty in judgment, and always generous; Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene and gentle; Teach us to put into actions our better impulses, straight-forward and unafraid; Grant that we may realize that it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life, we are one, and may we strive to touch and know the great human heart common to us all, and O Lord let us not forget to be kind.
