

Wedding party piped from Knox church, Acton

THREE MEMBERS of the Sand Hill Pipe Band piped Mr. and Mrs. Allan Horney from Knox Presbyterian church, Acton, after their wedding on June 5. The bride is the former Jeanette Yateman. Matron of honor is Mrs. Yvonne Mellon and the groomsmen Ray Venerus.—(Photo by Jim Jennings)

Blue and yellow daisies and carnations decorated Knox Presbyterian church, Acton, Saturday afternoon, June 5 for the marriage of Jeanette Yateman and Allan Bruce Horney. Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiated at the double-ring vows and E. A. Hansen was organist. Pipers piped the wedding party to and from the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Yateman of 48 Brock St., Acton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Horney, Kingsleigh Court, Milton, and is employed at Ajax Engineering, Acton.

Grandmother's choker
The bride wore a long white Empire-waisted gown with lace trim, white gloves and a white pearl choker that belonged to her grandmother. A small flowered crown with pearl drops held her veil. She carried a cascade of red roses and pink carnations edged with baby's breath.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister Mrs. Yvonne Mellon, Roseford Terrace, Acton, who wore a blue and white gown trimmed with lace and matching blue hat. She carried a bouquet of blue daisies and red carnations with white tips and fern.

Bridesmaid was Miss Donna Horney, Kingsleigh Ct., Milton, sister of the groom, who wore a yellow and white lace-trimmed gown with yellow hat, and carried yellow daisies and carnations trimmed in white.

The junior bridesmaid, Miss Wendy Horney, sister of the groom, also wore yellow with matching bouquet.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Fred Johnson, Pearl St., Milton. Ray Venerus, Milton, was groomsmen and the ushers were Glen Horney, brother of the groom, Milton, and Dave Mellon, brother-in-law of the bride, Acton.

Three pipers
In traditional full dress to pipe the wedding party to and from the church and the reception were the bride's uncle, George Johnson, his son Robbie and a friend of the family Charles Thompson, all members of the Sand Hill Pipe Band. They also played during the reception at the Legion Hall, Acton, when Mr. Johnson was master of ceremonies.

Spring weddings

Stone - Height church nuptials

In a double-ring ceremony in St. Alban's Anglican Church, Susan Patricia Height and David Neal Stone were married.

Rev. H. Dawson conducted the ceremony Saturday afternoon, May 22 and pink and white mums decorated the church.

Mrs. Frank Oakes played the organ.

Floor length gown

The bride wore a floor length white ligoda gown with Empire waist, daisy trim and a two tier veil. She carried miniature sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Fiona Wilson, Acton, was matron of honor and Miss Brenda Denny, Acton, was bridesmaid. They wore pale blue floor length gowns with Empire waists, daisy trim, and white straw hats. She carried blue and white miniature mums.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Edward Parent. Groomsman was Michael Wilson and the usher was David Kennedy.

Tidey reception

The reception followed at the home of her uncle and aunt, Tidey Ave. Guests were welcomed from Acton, Cornwall, Hespeler, Brampton, Rockwood, Embro, London and Guelph.

The couple took a wedding trip to Vermont, the bride wearing a silver and white two-piece pant suit, silver and white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

They are making their home in Acton.

Several miscellaneous showers were held for the bride-to-be.

One was held by her aunt, Mrs. E. Parent, one by Mrs. Fiona Wilson and the third by Brenda Denny and Diane Tremblay.

MR. AND MRS. David Stone were married in St. Alban's Anglican church May 22.

Twin is attendant at Guelph wedding

St. Joseph's church, Guelph, was the setting for a wedding of local interest, when Di-Anne Marie Graham and Albert Michael John Zinger were married.

The bride is a twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Graham of Guelph, formerly of Acton; the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Zinger of Guelph.

The church was decorated with white bows and shasta mums for the double-ring ceremony at four o'clock on June 5 conducted by the Rev. J. V. Mullen.

J. Kendrick played the organ and George Glynn was soloist. The bride wore a floor-length A-line gown of white taffeta, the high mandarin neckline trimmed with appliques of lace which extended down the front in double panels, and a detachable chapel train. A petalled headpiece of matching taffeta held the four tier scalloped veil of illusion, flowing into a floor length train. She carried coral roses and white carnations.

Twin sister

Maid of honor was the bride's twin sister Dorothy Graham; the bridesmaids were Regina Zinger, sister of the groom, and Barbara Buckman and junior bridesmaid was Colleen Crimless, all of Guelph. They wore gowns of coral chiffon over yellow taffeta.

Mr. Graham gave his daughter in marriage. Groomsman was Don Spears, Guelph and the ushers Fred Graham, Port Elgin, brother of the bride, and Don Carter, Guelph.

Grandfather 99

The reception was held in the Maryhill Knights of Columbus hall, attended by many guests from Acton, Detroit, Brampton, North Bay, Barrie, Maryhill, Brantford, Port Elgin and Guelph. Among them was the groom's 99-year-old grandfather, Albert Zinger.

The bride's mother received wearing an orchid dress and coat ensemble, bone accessories and pink rosebud corsage. The groom's mother chose a blue crepe dress and coat, white accessories and corsage of roses.

Color scheme

The bride's table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake iced in coral, yellow and white and was cut with a silver and pearl-handled knife, an heirloom of the bride's mother's family.

MARRIED IN Guelph June 5 were Di-Anne Marie Graham and Albert Michael John Zinger. The wedding was in St. Joseph's church.

Surprise shower

Leaving on the honeymoon trip north, the bride wore a pant suit of chocolate brown with striped top, white accessories and pink rosebuds.

They are making their home at 15 Sydenham St. Before the wedding, a miscellaneous shower was held for the bride at John McCrae hall, Guelph, by fellow workers and friends at Rennie Industries.

Relatives of the bride held a shower at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Nellis, R.R. 1, Acton, sister of the bride.

A bathroom shower was held by relatives of the groom at the home of Mrs. Max Zinger by Regina Zinger, the groom's sister.

Mrs. Velma West entertained at a surprise miscellaneous shower for her grandniece Wendy Fryer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fryer, Guelph. Approximately 30 guests attended including former school chums, from Milton, Guelph, Georgetown and Acton. Miss Bonnie McDowell, Misses Brenda and Barbara McNabb assisted Wendy with her numerous beautiful gifts.

More surprised even than the bride-to-be was the hostess when her sisters and nieces surprised her with a birthday cake and a bouquet of roses, while lunch was being served.

Donations made by Auxiliary

Tuesday night 25 scouts and guide mothers enjoyed a delicious pot luck supper in the scout hall.

Following the meal a short meeting was held during which all leaders were thanked on behalf of parents for their time and effort spent with the children.

Tents and camp stoves are being purchased by the Mothers' Auxiliary for the Guides and future Guides and money has been donated to the scouts for their camp and to the cubs for their camp fire this weekend.

Mothers were reminded that help is needed to run the refreshment booth in the park on the Saturday of the Fall Fair so that all the work and responsibility is not left to just a few as it was last year. To end the evening bingo was played and everyone was a prize winner.

Mrs. Barb Murchison was the lucky winner of the table decorations.
