

ERAMOSA RECREATION COMMITTEE'S entry took second prize for floats in the big carnival parade.

CLAYTON NEEB of Kitchener won the Horseshoe Pitching Tournament with Harry Seim of Rockwood runner-up. Winner got the Lou Hiltz trophy.

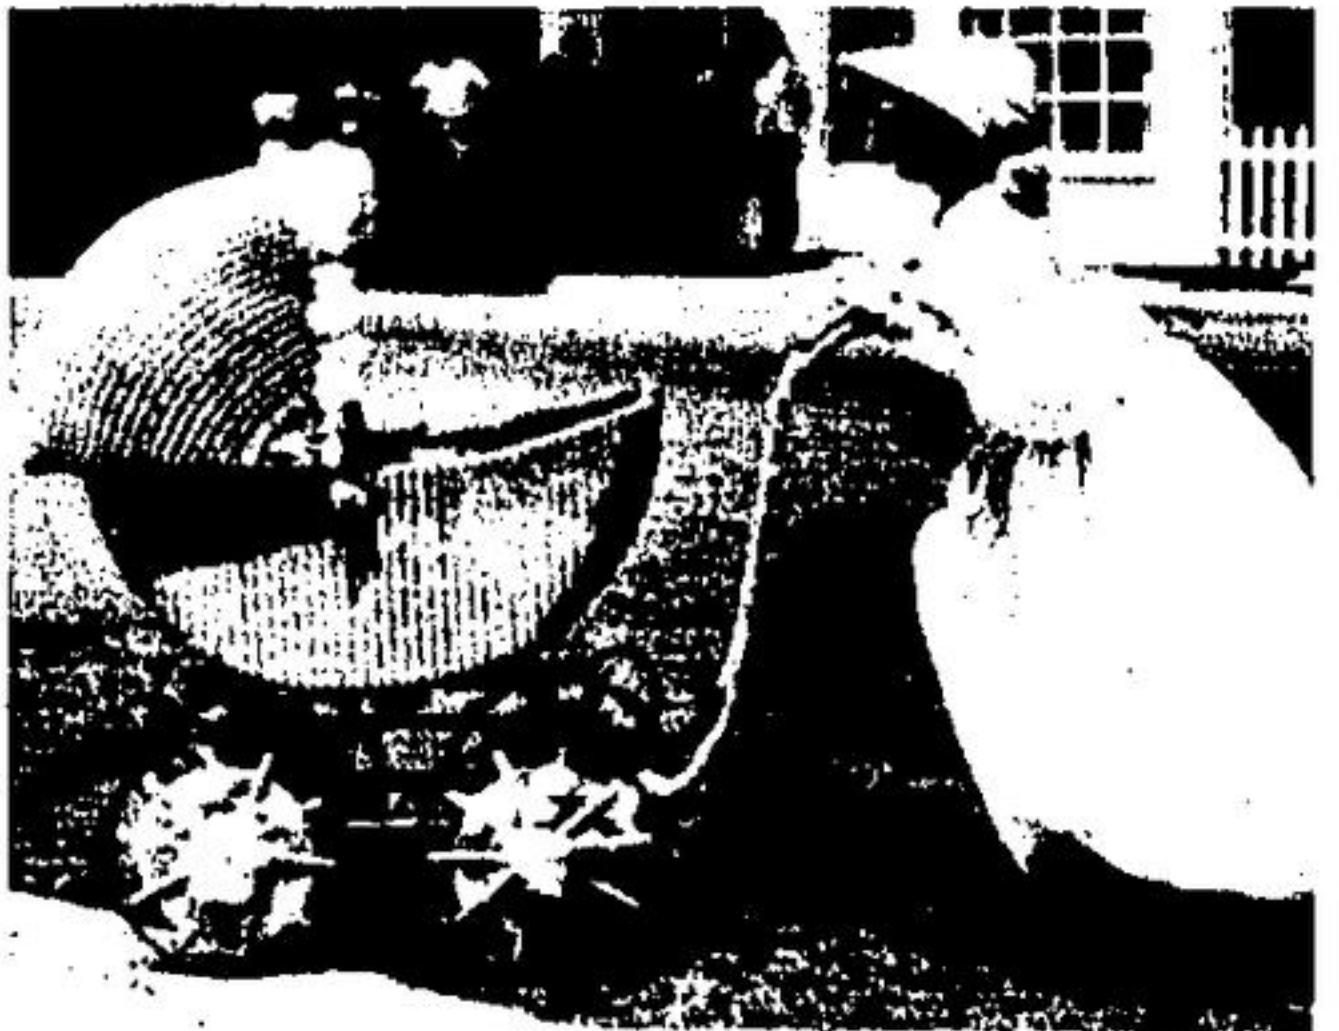

ERAMOSA JUNIOR FARMERS have a busy life. Their float proves it.

HEIDI PRANG OF Bridgeport is fascinated by Jennie Barr's donkey.

WHAT'S A PARADE without pets, decorated bicycles and a snowmobile on wheels?

WAIT FOR ME Sandy Kingsbury says of the parade as she wheels her old-fashioned pram around the corner in Saturday's parade. She was charming in pioneer dress.

Staff Photos

MR. PEANUT leads one segment of the Rockwood Carnival parade which included antique cars, tractor-drawn trolleys and children, of course.

Staff Photos

Rockwood Carnival

ROCKWOOD TRAIL RIDERS were a colorful part of the parade with several horses and riders.

ANNA BELLE the donkey, centre, had plenty of company in the carnival parade with Erica Barr on 31 year old Jingle Bell, Larry Hepburn, Anna Belle, Patrick Barr, Jennie Barr, and Earl Grey and Beth Thomson.

TAKING A WHACK at an old car with a sledgehammer was a favorite for youth at the carnival.

MALFUNCTION JUNCTION was a study in Hillbilly life for parade watchers.

day of fun!

JUMPING FROGS? Sandy Root had them and the croakers are admired by one petite youngster.

PART OF THE CROWD which thronged Rockwood Carnival Saturday afternoon patronizing booths, watching contests of skill, is seen in this shot by the Free Press cameras.

BETH CLARK had her bicycle well decorated for the parade.