Church service, picnic held at Gormac Lake

By Mrs. Fred MacArthur There was a good attendance of members and friends at Churchill Community Church Sunday morning service held at the peaceful quiet spot at Gormac Lake picnic grounds, the home of Mrs. W. J. McDonald and Gordon.

The morning worship at 11 o'clock had subject—Laborers together with God by our Pastor Rev. A. W. Fosbury, followed by Holy Communion. The choir sang an anthem and led in singing the hymns. The orchestra was in attendance with Mrs. Frank Thompson on her accordion assisting. At the close of the service tables in readiness were soon laden with an abundance of food for a dinner meal for all, even the treat of ice cream was

The afternoon was spent in various sports mainly swimming for the children. Mrs. Emerson Anderson, the superintendent of the Sunday School and teachers, Misses Joyce Denny, Erica and Elizabeth Stokov, Janice Swackhamer and Debbie Swackhamer organized the races and games which included women and men as well as little tots.

The Missing Link was present and entertained with music and song through the afternoon. The weather being perfect made it a day to remember.

Everyone present was so pleased to see Mrs. Harold Griffin was able to attend the service and picnic on Sunday Harold and Smith. We sincerely hope she continues to gain in strength.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binnie attended the Sharp-Foster reunion held at the Fred Sharp school house below Cheltenham on Sunday. About 60 persons were present and enjoyed a noonday barbecue dinner.
