ARNOTT — In loving memory of my dear brother, Sherdv, who passed away July 7, 1969. He had no one his last farewell. He said goodbye to none. The heavenly gates were opened.

A loving voice said "Come". We often sit and think of you. The things you used to say. We wonder why you had to die. Without a chance to say goodbye. Though out of sight, you're ever still missed by your loved ones. You will live with us in memory. Until the end of time. Sadly missed by brother Roy and Phyllis Arnott, Peel St. a2-2544

LORNE SCOTS MILITARY BAND played some classical, popular and toe-tapping music Saturday when Halton Centennial Manor held its annual lawn party for residents and visitors. Conductor E. G. Corlett is pictured leading the bandsmen through a number as a crowd watches on the front lawn of Martin House. Milton Girls Pipe Band also performed during the afternoon. A group of service club representatives ran games of chance while the Manor staff operated a couple of food and drink concessions. — (Staff Photo)

Lions Club busses 44 Golden Agers to party

By Mrs. Elsie Reed
Forty-four members of the Golden Age Club were promptly on hand on Saturday, at 1 p.m. at Luxton Hall to gladly take advantage of the Lions Club's kind offer of a free bus trip to Milton to the lawn party on the grounds of the Centennial Manor.

Lion Club members, Vic Bristow and Bernie Freuler drove down by car to see after all arrangements, so the elderly folk had not a worry.

Gay clowns
A couple of gay clowns cavorting about set the mood for a gay game. A stage was set up, complete with a loud-speaker arrangement, for the entertainers. Chairs were arranged on the spacious well kept grounds and the M.C. appeared in "top hat and tails". The Lorne Scots Band opened the program with "O Canada" and followed with a variety of selections which were all much enjoyed.

The Milton Girls' Kiltie Band smartly marched on with a swirling of kilts and the skirling of pipes, delighting the crowd with the Scottish tunes, Highland Lasse, Road to the Isles, etc.

The young Georgetown Twirlers charmed all with their smart appearances in white and green costumes, and they were quite dexterous with the batons through marches, dances and routines. Some Scotch dancers also pleased at intervals.

Various booths had been set up and were well patronised during the intermission. The baking sale was soon sold out and lots of hamburgers and ice creams were sold.

Many of the residents of the Manor were able to be out on the grounds to greet their friends although many were in wheelchairs, others with crutches, canes and braces. All had special friends they were pleased to see and chat with for a short while.

Actonian wins
Climax of the pleasant party came when Melville Cudmore drew the tickets on a cash draw. The Acton Golden Agers were happy when one of their members, Mrs. Ivan Harris, won the first prize of $100 and she was given a hearty clap — as she stepped up to receive her prize.

Before leaving the bus all sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" for Vic Bristow and thanked him for his care and kindness.

The Golden Age Club greatly appreciate the thoughtfulness, kindness and courtesy of the Lion's Club for providing the very nice treat. It was a very pleasant ending for Senior Citizens' Week.

"Year of Log Cabin" Museum festival theme

"The Year of the Log Cabin" is the unique theme for this year's Halton Museum Lawn Festival, the second annual event sponsored by the "Friends of the Museum" group. It will be a two-day event at the county museum at Kelso Park west of Milton this Saturday and Sunday, July 10 and 11, from 2 to 6 each afternoon. Funds raised will be used to reconstruct the log cabin that was taken down last year at Campbellville.

Plenty of music
The afternoon's entertainment will include the music of pipe bands, the Milton Senior Citizens orchestra, country and western music, square dancing and highland dancers and barber shop quartettes.

Local artists from the county and members of the Potters Guild will have their work on display and this will be offered for sale.

Tea will be served on the lawn in front of the museum and visitors to the museum are invited to wear costumes of the last hundred years.
