

Spilling the Pins . . .

at ACTON BOWLING LANES

By Ken Hulford

ACTON MIXED

Aug. 27: Acton Mixed launched the 1971-72 bowling season with every set being a two and totals win. In the first go, Wash Outs washed out the Hasbeens for their two and totals win with Earle Middleton 684 (284), Ches Lewandowski 591 (286) and Ken Billings 537 (221) pacing the win. Top trio for Hasbeens dropped up in Dan Party 554 (194), Al Norrie 544 (223) and Harry Middleton 508 (195). 'Twas a close go between Tigers and Cardinals, Tigers twisted the Cardinal tails for a 22 pin win in the first spasm, dropped the middle canto by 6 pins then roared back and clawed out a 35 pin win in the finale. Heading up the Tiger roll were Arlie White 683 (230), Rick Ivany 583 (241) and Joan Party 518 (199). Impossibles failed in their mission and only managed a 13 pin win in the middle chucker, the opposing Shades of Time having no trouble and wrapped up the first and third games. Leading the hit parade for the winners were Doug Vickery 601 (209), Marg Middleton 593 (206), Don Marzo 578 (211) and Donna Manto 498 (203). For the Impossibles it was Bill Manto 550 (218), George Fitzner 519 (251) and Andre Brouillard 521 (227).

Council to honor Rams

Acton Council will consider some form of public recognition for Acton Rams Junior Increase team. The Rams captured the O.L.A. Junior "C" championship here Saturday night.

At their regular meeting last night (Tuesday), council unanimously passed a resolution extending heartfelt congratulations to the team on their championship victory.

Maybe dinner
Councillor Jack Greer wondered if there'd be an occasion in the future when council might be able to dine members of the team, "perhaps at our municipal dinner", he suggested. Council agreed to put the matter of recognition of the team on the agenda for an upcoming committee meeting.

"It was darn nice to see a news clip of the Acton win on Kitchener TV Sunday night," Councillor Earl Masales commented. Jack Carpenter filmed parts of Saturday's game and post-game ceremonies.

Three titles
Reeve Frank Oakes told council he's been in town to see Acton teams win three provincial championships, hockey in 1939, baseball in 1947 and lacrosse now. "They're fairly well scattered, but they're all nice to have", he said.

Reeve Oakes said he thought the team had a whole of a gate Saturday night.

"I think it would be encouraging to them," he remarked.

Mayor Les Doby also congratulated Acton Citizens' Band on their fine second place finish in the C.N.E. competition.

Congratulatory letters are to be sent to both the increase team and the band.
