A Cordial Invitation To All

News and Views Royal Canadian Legion Branch 197

By John Chapman
We can be proud of our horseshoe pitching team. In first year of competition we managed a first in the Zone Tournament and a close second for the District, edged out by a well experienced and seasoned team from Brampton.
The entertainment provided Friday nights has proven quite popular.

The following members are presently on our Sick List: Nick Owens—Guelph General; Ted Elliott—Guelph General; Frank Winters—convalescing at home; Ted Pope—convalescing at home; Stan Collett—convalescing at home.
Branch 197 Dart League is rapidly being organized. A meeting of all persons interested will be held on Sept. 20.

Scouts, Cubs begin season soon

Cubs and scouts will begin their meetings next week, on the regular meeting nights, in the scout hall. Cubs, who are from eight to 10 years of age, will begin Monday, Sept. 13. Scouts, with an age range from 11 to 14, start meetings Thursday, Sept. 16.
First thing to consider: the float for the fall fair parade competition.

Anyone interested in joining may call for cubs, Forbes Cole 853-1058 or for scouts Murray Harrison 853-1177.

Upcoming events
Activities planned for cubs include a ball tournament with other towns, corn roast and hay ride, tours of local industry, fishing and cook-out, bicycle rodeo, skating and toboggan parties, hiking, camping, crafts nights once a month, games night once a month, participation in church parades and a possible trip to Toronto to see the Ice Capades.

Planned activities for scouts include visits to local industry, weekend camping trips, winter camp out, hikes on the Bruce Trail, participation in church parades and participation in the fall fair parade.

Free Press briefs

POLICE have a lost lady's watch on hand.

FERGUS has a day nursery now, with 30 children registered.

A PORTABLE classroom is in use at Erin high school to relieve overcrowding.

PARENTS should remind their youngsters they mustn't ride their bikes at night without lights.

I CAN hardly wait for kindergarten again tomorrow, enthused one excited new schoolgirl Tuesday.

SOME entries have been received already for the Free Press photography competition at the fair.

ACTON fair is the first in the district, September 17 and 18. Milton fair is the next weekend, Georgetown October 1 and 2, and Erin on Thanksgiving weekend.

GEORGETOWN mayor Bill Smith placed second in the bathtub race for mayors at the C.N.E. There were quite a few entries.

ONLY Canada and the United States observe Labor Day in September. Some other countries of the world have a similar holiday May 1.

HOUSE-to-house postal delivery began last week in Fergus. The mayor got the first letter to be delivered—from the postmaster-general.

Liberals to hold dinner

Halton East Liberals aren't waiting for Premier William Davis to call a provincial election before they set their wheels in motion.

The association is holding a fund-raising dinner tomorrow night (Thursday) at the Holiday Inn in Oakville. Party supporters attending the dinner will throw $25 each into the coffers for campaign expenses.

Rud Whiting, MP for Halton and Harry Harley, former MP are among those slated to attend the function. Liberal candidate for the riding Bob Blake has been running a vigorous campaign
