Anniversary, Brownies trip abroad in news

By Mrs. R. Wright
Eden Mills Presbyterian Church members attended the anniversary service at Rockwood Presbyterian church Sunday.

The guest speaker was the Rev. Gordon Griggs, B.A., B.D., of St. Giles Presbyterian Church, Galt, a former minister of both charges during his student days while attending Waterloo University. Many old memories were revived after the service.

Ebenezer

Church in news

By Mrs. Ron McLean
Next Sunday, Oct. 3, is World-Wide Communion Sunday. Ebenezer Anniversary is being held on Oct. 17.
Miss Susan Simpson has accepted a position to teach Grade 2, in Wawa Public School.
Mrs. Margaret Norrish was buried at Ebenezer on Tuesday.

Three traits
Mr. Finley's sermon dealt with the three Christian traits, faith, hope and love, each of which could stand alone. James Stewart, the Scottish minister, spoke of "no borrowed creed." We borrow a great deal of faith. Children learn faith at home. Faith is memory; faith is recall. We all look to the future. There is always something ahead. When a Cockney maid was asked how she managed to always be so cheerful, she replied, "At the end of the week, I'm all knocked down like nine pins. Then I go to church and gets all built up again."

Paul said, "It's better to die and be with Christ than to live."
Kinds of love
The three kinds of love are passion, brotherly love and God's love to man. The Father loved the prodigal son, in spite of his failings.

In olden times, a father and his young lad left their home in the old country, to come to the New World. First there was a bumpy ox-cart trip, followed by a stormy sea journey. The little boy said to his father, "When are we going to have a home that stays still?"
In our journey, we have faith drawn from the past, hope for the future and knowledge of God's love.

New brownies

Eden Mills Brownies started their winter activities last week with seven new members, Barbara Adair, Christina Bell, Tracy Currie, Sylvia Schelkle, Ann Schwartzburg, Charlene Varcoe and Sharon Vos. Five Brownies will fly up to Guides in the near future.

Nine year old Aaron Chesworth has returned from an exciting visit to Portugal and the Azores Islands where he collected geological specimens with his father, Prof. Ward Chesworth. The Chesworth family spent three weeks in England visiting relatives in Norwich, Cheshire. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mills were home for the weekend visiting Mrs. Beryl Wright and brother Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings were in Port Perry over the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shunk.
