Home sales still high

Sale of homes in Halton County increased by 72 per cent this August over the same month last year. A total of 635 units were sold this August compared to 441 units during that period last year, according to A. E. Lepage Realtors.

Total sales so far this year amount to $22,531,226 excluding land and apartment, industrial and commercial deals. This comparable figure last year was $13,152,056.

In Milton 12 units at $240,850 were sold during August last year and 16 units at $470,000 this year. In Acton seven units were sold at $89,962 last August and 11 units at $225,360 were sold this August.

Similar increases materialized in each of the other centres in Halton County. A Lepage official estimates Halton County sales will increase at least 15 per cent this year, spurred by a backlog.

OPEN UNTIL OCTOBER 18
