Missionary changes in Formosa described

By Mrs. A. Benton Rev. James E. Sutherland,

B.A., Presbyterlan missionary home on furlough after 17 years in Formosa, conducted services at Limehouse on Sunday. He told of the great advancements in education, religion, manufacturing, health and all other living habits since the first missionary, Dr. George Leslie McKay was sent to Formosa by the Presbyterlan Church in Canada one hundred years ago. Missionaries are not now the preachers and teachers but are the advisers to the native leaders.

The W.M.S. observed their fall thank-offering at the same service. The choir sang an anthem and Mrs. Wm. Karn and Miss Mary Lou Brown rendered a duet.

W.I. meeting

The Limehouse W.I. met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Benton on Thursday, following dinner served by the hostess. The meeting was opened by singing "The More We Get Together". Roll call was answered by "A Resolution I would like passed". Mrs. Benton reported from the University for the Thanksgiving district directors meeting at weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heatley. Julie Lynn and Sean spent a very enjoyable weekend at the Citation Travel Trailer Club's

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith of Niagara Falls, Ont. and Mrs. T. J. Holmes, of St. Catharines, Ont. visited with Mrs. McDonald over the Thanksgiving weekend.

Thanksgiving Rally at New

Hamburg community park.

Mrs. Veronica Leard and her daughter Miss Mary Ann Leard of Boston, Massachusetts, visited on the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.D.E. Smith and family. Mary Ann is Norman Smith's fiancee, and a shower was held for her on Saturday evening, with Norman assisting. The couple plan to be married in Boston early in December.

Mr and Mrs. Jim Stewart of Meaford and Mrs. Kathleen Ireland of Staple Hill, Bristol England visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Huxley and family on the weekend. Mrs. Ireland left by air Saturday night for home, after a month's stay in Canada, which included visits to several parts of the province. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will be staying in Acton, while Mrs. Huxley is in Guelph General Hospital for surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Reed, Norval, entertained about 80 of the McBride family, Mrs. Marion Reed's mother's side of the family, for a family reunion at their home. The family who attended from the farthest came from Florida. Mrs. Reed has retired from A.D.H.S. staff.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Elliott have been away on a fall holiday. A highlight was the golden wedding Tuesday, 8.00 p.m. — Prayer anniversary in Comber of Mrs. Elliott's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Buchanan. Over 300 attended a reception in the church hall and then the families enjoyed a buffet dinner at their home. Mr. Buchanan was well-known; he had been on county council for years and is a former warden of Essex county. A sister came from Florida for the occasion; Mr. and Mrs. James D. Wilson are both over 80 and will be celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary next year. Others attending celebration were George Elliott, Acton: Jane Elllott, now of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dills. Steven, Mark, Paul, Catherine and Carolyn, Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Hilt Elliott went on to travel east and then to northern Ontario. In Gananoque, they called on a former Actonian, Mrs. Edgar Hilton and son Gerry, and

Basket drive success

Scouter Murray Harrison with seven scouts gathered three trailer loads of baskets in their drive. The response was good, especially in the older part of town. Net profit was $21.

The baskets were left outside by co-operative householders and picked up by the boys a week ago Saturday. They were picked up and purchased last Monday.

Election signs are the object of pirates, jokers or perhaps vandals these days. Many signs have been taken down. Some are destroyed. Others, obviously as a joke, find their mysterious way onto the lawns or roofs of people of others persuasions.

Apple day is the next public event for the scouts and cubs. It's
