HEADPIN HILITES

It would appear to me that someone in the inner sanctum of the great family journal, the Acton Free Press has astigmatism. In our last week's column, reporting on the bowling of our Master Bowler, Bill Anderson, the M.B.A. Fall Classic we noted that "our Bill" rolled a ten game block of 2502. Somehow this got printed as 1502. Gadooks, even our Y.B.C. Bantams do better than this. If this erroneous report causes you any embarrassment with your fellow masters/bowlers, Bill, we're sorry. Floyd Hammond, the energetic secretary of the Big Four league is in the Guelph General Hospital for the removal of a bad-acting bladder—that winds it up once again my friends, so adios amigos, have a "Happy Birthday" Shaun, and goodnite, Concord City.

STRIKES at Youth Bowling

By Bill Gentles

Bantam 1st Division

In the first division of our Bantam league, the Crabs pinched one game and totals but left the Teddy Bears with one game. The Octopus team knocked the spring out of the Kangaroos by talking both games from them. To complete the first division for this week, we had the Rabbits grabbing one game and totals from the Whales.

Bantam 2nd Division

With the second Bantam Division we saw the Sea Horses out pace the Snails to come up with both games and of course totals. The Donkeys kicked up one game and totals but did not kick hard enough as the Cats got in on the act for one game. The Dogs and the Penguins had one game apiece but the Dogs fought harder and came up with totals.

Winning in this week's Bantam divisions were: Bill Sheppard, Christine Auger, Egan Robinson and Nancy Frank. The Bantam Top Ten for this week were Robbie Boufford 519 (186), Allan Edmondson 315 (185), David Dunn 295 (159), Steve Blanchard 293 (169), Bert Post 318 (158), Bill Sheppard 273 (160), Husley 268 (135), Peter Hurdle 257 (132), Henry Roach 247 (129), George Warner 238 (139). Our most consistent Bantam bowlers for this week were Nancy Frank 97-97 and Bert Post 108-158.

Junior Division

In the first junior games we saw the Archers pick up two games but lose one game and totals to the Turks. The Hot Dogs socked it to the Boros when they took two games and totals from them. The Raiders took two games from the Dodos but lost one which also cost them totals. This week's Junior "Top Ten" are Gary Pickles 610 (262), Danny Thompson 569 (267), Cliff Creasey 441 (273), Susan Thompson 524 (181), Delphin Roach 520 (180), Jennifer Krapek 316 (181), Brenda Johnston 493 (202), Brian Larsen 481 (178), Theresa Synost 470 (191), Karee Tremblis 448 (162).

Senior Division

The Idots made short work of the Ding-a-lings when they beat them in all three games. In the Have-Not's all three games. It was the Have-Not's winning all of the games. The Knights crowned the Headpins by taking two games and totals from them. Senior "Top Ten" for this week are Roger McEachern 582 (198), Janet Storey 562 (204), Deb Storey 558 (210), Heather Wilkinson 527 (193), Denise Drinkwater 549 (218), Dan McGilloway 540 (204), Rossland Hall 538 (218), Margo Matheson 536 (216), Wade Knight 521 (176), Barry Payne 511 (228).

LEAGUE STANDINGS

Bantam 1st Division: Octopus 12, Crabs 9, Kangaroos 7, Teddy Bears 6, Rabbits 5, Whales 5.

TORONTO'S Linda Carbonetto stars in this year's edition of the Ice Capades, which opened at Maple Leaf Gardens last night (Tuesday), and run through Sunday.

By Bob MacArthur

The draw committee were hard at it Sunday afternoon when a call was made to the rink. They were Willa Hewitt, Len Lovell, Mrs. Higgins, Bob Drinkwater and Bruce Cargill. They have a thankless task. In trying to give every curler the time requested, there has to be much juggling in order to get competitive teams. With two draws each Monday and Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday nights to accommodate, it takes some scheduling. So if you did not get the night and times requested, have a little sympathy for the poor committee.

+++

The membership committee under Chas. Leatherland sure did a wonderful job in getting curlers out last week. A large number had not curled at all, but experienced curlers were on hand to assist the newcomers. Quite a number of persons who had curled but had not been active since the new club has been built, were also on hand. It is hoped that a number of new faces will be seen around the club this year and take an active part in curling.

+++

In the club house a coat of curathane has been given the floor and the ledge at the windows. Even the round table tops were treated to a coat. It sure smartens up the appearance of the room. In the rink section, a paint job has been given the block walls. Around the ends and part way up the side walls they are painted green. Next comes a panel of orange, then a yellow one. In the centre is a dark blue panel unto which Ken Marchment has inscribed the club crest. This painting was done by volunteer labour with paint donated for most of the job. From the rafters are hung varicolored skirts which have a pleasing effect. These skirts also serve to cut the glare for spectators in the lounge. Overall, the effect is pleasing.

+++

First scheduled curling for the season began Monday evening. By the time this is published most curlers will have played at

Orangeville Raceway

Easter Seals totals listed

A recent issue of Horizons, the publication of The Ontario Society for Crippled Children, lists all area donations to the Easter Seal Campaign. Acton Rotary is down for $1,081 donation—higher than last year's total.

Milton Rotary sent along $1,982.75; Georgetown Rotary $2,756.25; Oakville Rotary $12,031.80; Burlington Lions $20,615.
