

Johnston - Robinson wedding October 2

Doris Lillian Robinson and Lt. Col. Norbert Bernard Johnston were married in Nassagaweya Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon, October 2.

The groom is with the U.S. Army and the couple are living at 50 McGill Circle, Eatonville, New Jersey. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robinson, R.R. 1, Campbellville. The groom is the son of Mrs. A. Johnston and the late Mr. G. J. Johnston, Perrysville, Pa.

Mums in autumn colors decorated the church for the afternoon ceremony conducted by the Rev. D. R. Nicholson. Mrs. Tom Manes played the organ and Douglas Dredge sang the Marriage Prayer and It Was God's Grace That Made You Mine.

Carried roses

The bride wore a full-length Empire line crepe gown with Venetian lace, stand-up ruffled collar and long gathered sleeves. The train, attached at the Empire waist, was simply trimmed with covered buttons down the centre. A headpiece of Venetian lace flowers trimmed with pearls held her illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and orange roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jean Robinson, Guelph, the bride's sister-in-law. Bridesmaids were two friends, Miss Jennifer Taylor, Fort Lauderdale, Florida and Miss Joyce Britt, Guelph.

They wore full length pant dresses with orange chiffon tops and skirts of autumn shaded flowers, and orange picture hats. They carried crescent shaped bouquets of orange mums. Their pearl and gold chain bracelets were the gift of the bride.

Mr. Robinson gave his daughter in marriage. Groomsman was Jack Mulliken, Neptune N.J., a friend of the groom, and the ushers were George Robinson, Guelph, brother of the bride, and Neil Di Rito, Avalon Pa., brother-in-law of the groom.

Reception at school

The reception was held in Brookville public school. Many guests were present from Acton, Shelburne, Oakville, Guelph, Toronto, Kitchener, Bluevale, Orangeville, Caledon East, Milton, Georgetown, Bolton, London, Ajax, Odessa, Pittsburg Pa., Avalon Pa.,

Emsworth Pa., Allison Park Pa., Neptune N.J. and Ft. Monmouth N.J.

The bride's mother wore a mid-blue dress and coat ensemble with lace and pearl trim, black accessories, and orange sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother wore an eggshell brocade dress and jacket ensemble, black accessories and orange sweetheart roses.

The bride's mother made the wedding cake.

Trip north

The couple left on a trip to Northern Ontario, the bride wearing an orange velvet velour Empire belted coat dress with black accessories. She wore three orange sweetheart roses in her hair.

The bride was the guest of honor at several special events before the wedding.

Miscellaneous showers were held by Mrs. Jean Robertson, the ladies of Nassagaweya Presbyterian church, Mrs. Elma Westlake, Mrs. Catherine Freeman and by Miss Joyce Britt. Open house was held by the bride's parents at their home on Sept. 26.

Milne - Henry vows

In a ceremony in Rockwood United church, Trudy Marie Henry and Charles Wilson Milne were married October 9. The Rev. Ralph Williams officiated for the afternoon wedding and Mrs. Elizabeth Ferrier played the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hills, 377 Wetherald St., Rockwood, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Milne, Alma St., Rockwood.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Gary Ritchie, Main St., Rockwood; the bridesmaids Mrs. Vincent Dunne and Sandra Henry; junior bridesmaid Wendy Henry and the flower girl June Glendenning. All are of Rockwood.

Robert Phillips, R.R. 2, Rockwood, was ring bearer.

Best man was Gary Ritchie, ushers Vincent Dunne, James Glendenning and Russel Glendenning of Rockwood. The reception followed in Rockwood town hall.

The couple are living on Main St., Rockwood.

Guests were present from Wyoming, Mich., Ajax, Bramford, Preston, Montreal, Bowmanville, Guelph, Everton, Toronto, Harriston, Oshawa, Kitchener, Galt and Acton.

Two aunts were hostesses for a shower for the bride-to-be, Mrs. H. Angus, Wyoming, Mich., and Mrs. Murray Milson. A second shower at S.S. No. 8 school was put on by Mrs. Betty Glendenning, Mrs. Judy Dunne, Mrs. Gail Ritchie, Mrs. Blanche Glendenning, Mrs. Eva Glendenning and Mrs. Donna Schinck.

Mrs. Donna Schinck also was hostess for another shower for the bride.

MARIE HENRY and Charles Milne were married in Rockwood United church October 9, and are living in the village.

Future of U.C.W. ? forum hosted here

Trinity United Church Women have arranged to host a forum in the church for Wed. Nov. 17. There will be nine area United churches represented at this get-together to re-vitalize the organization. Participants from some of these churches will present a skit outlining the U.C.W. function in the church. Guest soloist will be Brenda McNeil and pianist June Evans. The devotional segment of the program will be of a contemporary nature and will be presented by some of the Acton women.

Mrs. Hughes will give some of her fascinating book reports and show what materials are available. Area treasurer Ina King will be accompanied by Helen Stainton and they will answer any questions from the floor regarding U.C.W.

Every woman associated with Trinity in Acton is being urged to attend and take part in this informative evening to exchange ideas with members of other

Prize lists ready for 1972 fall fair

Mrs. C. Aitken was hostess for the regular monthly meeting of the ladies of Acton Fair board. The president Mrs. E. Archibald was in the chair and Mrs. S. Morrison, assistant secretary read the minutes of the last meeting and gave the financial report. Thirteen ladies were present.

The Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies 1971 annual meeting was held in Orangeville, 14 members from Acton attended.

Advance list

After a lengthy discussion the ladies completed their prize lists for the 1972 ladies division advance fair book.

The hostess, Mrs. C. Aitken, assisted by Mrs. R. L. Davidson and Mrs. C. Storey served lunch. The next meeting will be the Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. S. Morrison, Dec. 2 at 7 o'clock.

Committee in charge is Mrs. J. McEnery and Mrs. R. L. McEnery. A pot luck supper will be served, all are to bring their own dishes, also the usual crazy gift exchange.

Mrs. W. Thompson was courtesy convener.

Group plans mincemeat sale

The Daughters of Knox held their regular monthly meeting in the Miss Ellen Anderson Room at Knox Presbyterian Church Monday evening Nov. 2. The president Mrs. Harry Otterbein presided. Plans were made for the making of mincemeat. The 1972 Presbyterian Calendars were given the members to distribute. Each member was given a sheet of paper with the list of offices and were asked to fill in the office they wished to hold for the coming year.

Money from a faithful member was donated toward a Life Membership of the Missionary Society and it will be taken care of by the committee in charge. The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Tom Watson and her group for the Worship and Study. The Study "Problems and dilemmas of the new generation in Africa" was presented. A poem I am an African was read by Mrs. E. A. Hansen. The Scripture was read by Mrs. H. Price and the meditation given by Mrs. M. Sprowl.

Change day coffee hour

The Drop-in coffee hour for the women of the community has been changed from Wednesday to Thursday this week between 10 and 11 a.m. The next gathering is Thursday, November 18. The Coffee Hour is in the parish hall with a nursery for children.

U.C.W.'s to further stimulate the interests of members and potential members.

Coffee will be served and everyone is assured of a warm welcome.

Mrs. Runham of Georgetown who is program convener for this area, is helping with this evening and its success will depend upon a worthwhile turnout.

Trinity U.C.W. is also planning a pot luck general meeting Dec. 8.

Guelph area W.I. convention at Guelph

Mrs. Howard Welcker, president of Guelph-area, welcomed 278 delegates to the 32nd annual convention of Guelph area Women's Institutes, in Guelph.

Mrs. Welcker, in her president's address spoke on the theme "Accent on Inspiration and Communication". She stressed that there should be more visiting between the executives and the branch Institutes. Potential new members should be informed of the aims and objectives of the Women's Institute.

A lively singing was ably conducted by Mrs. W. Knapp several times during the sessions.

Achieve goal

President of the F.W.I.O., Mrs. Austin Zoeller, reported that the W.I. 75th anniversary fund to raise $50,000 for McDonald Institute extension was now completed, the W.I. having achieved their goal. Mrs. Zoeller urged each branch to participate in the 75th Anniversary celebrations as well as sending a delegate to the luncheon at the Royal York Hotel Canadian Room in February. Mrs. D. Bannister reported 18 members in the Norval Jr. Institute, keeping busy. This is the only Junior Institute in the Guelph area.

The Public Relations Officer, Mrs. Fried, reported that 122 branches in the Guelph area donated $30,015 to various projects and causes, $288 more than last year.

The 265 delegates gathered in the recreation centre of the Dublin St. church for a banquet.

Tell of Arctic

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bule of Kitchener spoke and showed slides on life in the Arctic. Mr. Bule was superintendent of schools for the federal government in the Northwest Territories and Mrs. Bule taught school in Inuvik. Ron Goodwin and his five daughters, ages 3 to 15, played and sang several delightful selections.

Mrs. H. Jamieson opened the Wednesday morning session and introduced Miss Helen McKeercher, director of Home Economics Service, Dept. of Agriculture and Food, who introduced the five economists.
