

Legion town league tallies

ATOMS - Gareth Turner and Rivylyn Kennedy accounted for all the Brampton goals in a 5-2 win over Guelph. Turner bagged three goals and Kennedy potted a pair.

Tim Jamieson scored both Guelph goals. Ricky Papillon and Chris Mitchell earned assists.

Weston trounced Dixie 10-2 in the second atom game, as Gord McArthur fired five goals, Gary Lumbers tallied four and Steve Hepburn netted one. Jeff Sargent (2), Ronnie Jackson (3) and Gregory Scott (2) earned assists.

David Brown scored both Dixie goals.

NOVICES - Lance Alton set up the first Oshawa goal by Ray Carter, then scored the winner unassisted, as the Generals posted a close 2-1 win over Peterborough. Boles scored for the Petes with David Lawson assisting.

Five players shared in the scoring in Hamilton's 6-3 victory over London. George Brown paced the Red Wing attack with two goals. John Grise, Nick Humenluk, Randy McIntyre and Jeff Hamilton scored one apiece. Frank Geng picked up an assist.

For London, Gord Scott had two goals and Peter Luty one. Todd Cook assisted on one of Scott's markers.

Niagara Falls whitewashed St. Catharines 10-0, sparked by Mike Nicholls' three goal two assist effort. Steve Tremills and Stephen Lumbers added two goals apiece for the Flyers. Singles went to Tony Geng, Rob Renshaw and Ralph Bowen. Murray McNabb collected two assists and Ralph Bowen picked up one.

PEEWEEES - Ford Alton tallied all five goals, as Rochester downed Springfield 5-2 in peewee action. Mike Morris had two assists.

Brian Moore and Ron Kulken replied for Springfield, John Galt picked up an assist.

A three goal hat trick by Scott Withers earned Cleveland a 3-3 tie with Baltimore. Bill Romanovich, Mike Jollymore and Jeff Jollymore scored for Baltimore.

BANTAMS - Buffalo downed Pittsburgh 6-4, as John Dyer fired a hat trick, John McCutcheon bagged two goals and Lance Court netted one. McCutcheon assisted on two goals and Peter Kroes helped out on one.

Jim Hurley, John Cameron, Rick Baginski and Gord Toth scored for Pittsburgh. Hurley, Baginski and Toth earned assists.

MIDGETS - Goals by George Artem, Chris Schuts and Mike Ferguson gave Los Angeles a 3-2 win over Montreal. Peter Hargrave, Ted Hagan and Steve Shults picked up assists for the Kings.

Carl Reed and Chris Tennant scored for Montreal. Kevin Marcoux earned two assists and Paul Daloy picked up one.

Novices knock off Kitchener

Acton A-B novices chalked up impressive wins against Elmira and Kitchener last week to improve their Waterloo-Wellington league record to two wins and one loss.

Last Wednesday night A-B's bounced back from a 2-1 first period deficit to knock off Elmira 6-3. Acton outscored their hosts 3-0 in the second period and 2-1 in the third. Elmira scored the first goal of the game at the nine second mark of the first period.

"I thought both our goalies played extremely well considering they're both in their first year," coach Barry Insoe commented.

A-B's play a rematch with Kitchener here tomorrow (Thursday) night at 7, take on Fergus here, Saturday afternoon at 1.10

Industrial league Three teams tied for first place

Two goal efforts by Larry Porte, John Mason and Gerry Van Der Eyken sparked Lakeview Centre to an 8-5 upset victory over Heller's in AIHL action Sunday night. The Lakeview win coupled with an 8-4 Blow Press win over Nielsen's Clothing created a three way tie for first place. Lakeview, Heller's and Blow Press all have two wins and a loss. Last place Nielsen's are winless in three starts.

Schmidt, Hillier, Cunningham and Ryder picked up one each. For Nielsen's, Stu McDonald bagged three goals and Bob Waller potted one. Steve Goy earned a pair of assists. Steve Townsley and Bill Coon chipped in one apiece.

Scott Malcolm and Steve Van Der Eyken netted two goals apiece for Acton. Shane Withers and Ricky Gibson notched a goal each. Malcolm, Van Der Eyken, Peter Musellius and Dave McGilloway picked up assists. Thomson, Snider and Clements were the Elmira marksmen.

Saturday night in Kitchener, Darrel Neeley and Chris Swetman combined to keep the hometown Komets off the scoresheet, while their teammates put on a fancy display of stickhandling and passing.

Bert Post scored two of the Acton goals. Lee-John Bonnell and Scott Malcolm tallied one apiece. Post was playing his first game, after recovering from a bout with the flu.

Ron Mellon tallied two goals and an assist for Heller's. Ed Hillier counted a goal and two assists, Jim McDonald and Gary Ritchie a goal and an assist apiece and Robbie Townsend one assist.

Kevin Hall fired a hat trick for Blow Press in the first game. Ron Schmidt, Harv Hillier, John Cunningham, Dave Ryder and Gary Kelley netted a goal apiece. Kelley and Lorne Gordon collected two assists each. Hall.

Four instructional hockey films, obtained from Hockey Canada, will be shown at the M. Z. Bennett School auditorium Saturday, November 27 between 2 and 4. Admission is free and everyone interested is welcome. Since Acton novices, pee wees and bantams have games that day, Acton Minor Hockey head coach Jim James is attempting to make arrangements to show the films to them at a later date.

Kaisers blank Acton peewees

Acton Y's Men's peewees bowed 2-0 to Kitchener in a Waterloo-Wellington league game in Kitchener Saturday night.

Kaisers took a 1-0 lead in the second period and added an insurance tally in the third. Dale Williams and Roy Windhagen were the marksmen.

Ross Luft and Wally Bauman combined to post the shutout in the Kitchener nets. Y's Men had the puck in the Kitchener end for much of the third period, but failed to finish off their plays.

Moved by a suggestion by committee member Gil Malcolm that "the arena's getting to look like a damn psychedelic art gallery", Acton Parks and Recreation Committee have authorized installation of a bulletin board, six feet by four feet, to display advertising posters.

Y's Men play host to Fergus, Saturday afternoon at 2.15 play in New Hamburg Sunday night at 8 and take on Erin here, Tuesday, November 30 at 7.

Malcolm claimed having posters up all over the place was taking away from the appearance of the building.
