Neighbors honor Mrs. Fletcher

By Mrs. Ron McLean
Old friends and neighbors gathered in Brookville School to honor Mrs. Beatrice Fletcher, who recently moved from a century farm to make her home in Arkell. Mrs. Fletcher filled a great need in the community for years by acting as secretary-treasurer of the public school board. She was always willing to assist in any good cause. Her three daughters and several grand-children attended, as well as a large number of well-wishers. We wish Mrs. Fletcher happiness in her new home. Mrs. Sadie Moore is a patient in Guelph General Hospital.

40th anniversary
Freida and Elias Easterbrook, former residents of the district, were honored with a party in the township hall to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. A large crowd of relatives and friends were present and several lovely gifts were received.

Worth 10 cents?
Mr. Finley opened his Sunday sermon by asking, "How much are you worth?" The New Testament places a very high value on the individual. Recently two young children were offered for sale for $7,000 and a used car. Lloyd Douglas, the former, well-known Montreal minister, told of going into a book store on a bargain day. He found a biography of a friend, who gave his life working as a missionary. The price was 10 cents. A man's life worth ten cents?

We are temples of the living God and children of God. One modern cynic said that man is a bit of organic dust on one of the smallest planets. We are capable of living very mean lives.

St. Augustine said that if you dig deep enough in any man you will find the divinity of God.

We are made in the image of God. We have a backing of the grace of God, just as a beautiful maple tree has the background of sky and grass. Identify with your best self.

Award night

Brownies awards night was Tuesday at the Hall. Sixty stripes were for Judy Inson, Linda Knight and Katherine Thomson; second stripes to Kelly Hollingsworth, Karen Woolmer and Michelle Woolmer; service stars one year pin to Kelly Hollingsworth, Karen Woolmer, and Cindy McDonald; second year pins to Judy Inson, and Katherine Thomson; three year pins to Linda Knight; golden bar badges to Kelly Hollingsworth and Cinday McDonald; cyclist badges to Glenda and Carol Majurey, Karen and Michelle Woolmer, Katherine and Ara Aggiss and Kelly Hollingsworth; housekeeper badges to Linda Knight, Judy Inson, Katherine Thomson and Karen and Michelle Woolmer; cooks badges to Michelle Woolmer, Linda Knight, and Judy Inson. Brown Owl Mrs. Ron Thomson presented the awards on her retirement. Mrs. D. Case is the new Brown Owl.

W.M.S. meeting

The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Appleyard on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Mitchellin the chair, 11 attending. Scripture Ps. 25 was read by Mrs. Appleyard and Mrs. Kirkwood led in Prayer. The treasurer reported some $50 still to raise to reach our allocation. The secretary sold 1972 Presbyterian Calendars to most of those present. Text word yield was answered in a verse of Scripture.

Several had appropriate current events items and articles or poems pertaining to armistice. Two minutes silence in memory of those who gave their lives in world wars was observed followed by Prayer by the president and the singing of O God Our Help in Ages Past.

Mrs. Patterson reported the highlights of the Norval thankoffering which she attended, and the secretary read a report of a recent district meeting at Dixie. The Lord's Prayer in unison closed the meeting. Mesdames Appleyard served a lovely lunch afterwards.

Rev. D. H. Rayner, editor of the Presbyterian Record preached at Limehouse on Sunday.

read an address expressing the feelings of the congregation and Dick Appleyard and Ted Brown presented a large leather reclining chair, K. C. Lindsay a purse; and Mrs. Crichton roses to the honored guests.

Rev. and Mrs. Young each expressed sincere thanks and remarked of their friendships and memories of the Limehouse congregation. Following the benediction by Mr. Young a social hour arranged by Mrs. Crichton was enjoyed while W.M.S. president Mrs. Mitchell and W. A. president Mrs. R. Appleyard poured tea.

50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Patterson attended the gathering of relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Nessam Hodson on their 50th wedding anniversary at Westway Village on Nov. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry and Tanya of Midland visited her parents, the Patterson's a while the same day.

Honor minister, wife

By Mrs. A. Benton
A well-attended and pleasant evening was spent in Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Thursday when the congregation honored Rev. and Mrs. F. Norman Young, until recently their minister and his wife.

Board of managers chairman Lloyd McEnery opened the program by announcing the hymn "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," and called William Karn, superintendent of the Sunday school to lead-in Prayer.

On prayer
Numbers enjoyed on the program included vocal duets by Betty Ann Karn and Mary Lou Brown, and a piano solo by Laura Stevens. Glenda Benton led a sing song with Ada Roughley at the organ. A. C. Patterson showed some beautiful scenery slides from trips he had to the west coast and to Carolina. All moved to the basement for the remainder of the evening. After a couple of contests, A. W. Benton

'Royal' visit

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craik and Sydney Craik in the death of their sister Margaret, in a car accident on Thursday at the Town Line corner. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craik are in hospital, due to injuries received in the accident. Perhaps we don't like these frosty mornings, but they are safer than fog, which was the cause of another car accident on Highway 24. Deborah Stewart and William Clarke were treated at the hospital, but released. Deborah is recovering at her home from bruises and a shaking up.

Linda Ferguson, R.N., of Kitchener, and Gary Ferguson of Waterloo University, spent the weekend at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson.

Visitors on Sunday with Mrs. Thomas Fines and Doris, were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Flom, and Mrs. A. E. Smith of Vancouver, and Mrs. Elwood Peavoy of Erin.

At "Royal"
The Grade 8 pupils of Ospringle School spent Thursday Nov. 18 at the Royal Winter Fair. They had G. Aitken as their bus driver. Few of the students had previously visited the Agricultural Fair, so they found it a very worthwhile experience.

The butter sculpture of Gordie Howe and Jean Belliveau caught much interest. Various breeds of farm animals had been discussed earlier in the week at school, and many good questions were solved throughout the day.

All reported a good day, and their principal, L. Brown enjoyed their enthusiasm, friendship and fullest co-operation.

The Ospringle School students hope you will keep open Wednesday evening, December 15 as an entertainment is underway for all parents and anyone interested. There will be further notice.
