THURSDAY TOPPERS

Nov. 25: Ding-A-Lings almost took over the top spot when they met the league-leading Shamrocks. They took the first two stanzas but lost out in the third and Shamrocks were still heading up the top rung by a slim point. Top trio for Ding-A-Lings were Joan Why 532 (199), Bev Haringa 521 (191) and Joan Schipper 496 (187). Best for the Shamrocks were Eileen Meechan 591 (242), Barb Jackson 466 (169) and Joyce Adams 452 (167). Bluebells were a two and totals

ACTON MIXED

Nov. 26: The best league-leading Shades of Time could do against the Cardinals was to tie the middle chucker so it ended up in a 61 point split in the Cardinals' favor. Heading up the win were Elston Adams 708 (213), Bill Hoyd 620 (224), Elsie Edmondson 587 (215) and Ann Marie Moore 522 (207). Best for the shades of Time were Donna Manto 680 (250), John Tyra 583 (198) and Rupe Harmer 522 (204). Impassables parlayed a bunch of solos into a two game win over the Hasbeens but couldn't come up with enough pins to take totals. Scoring Impassables' singles were Andre Hrouillard 204-201, Bill Manis 302, Keith Wellwood 224, Lenora Vickery 249, Gerrie McMullen 219. Hasbeens came up with triples and singles, getting 'em were Clarence Harding 673 (230), Bill McMullen 629 (257), Ann Felker 223 and Harry Middleton 215-213. Washouts got washed out but good when they met up with the Tigers. Tigers took all games by plenty. Arlie White 721 (243), "Shorty" Lowin 643 (221) and Bob Price 568 (209) were top trio in the win. Best in Washouts' efforts were Earle Middleton 654 (234), Ken Hillings 632 (225) and Helen Brouillard 528 (185).
League standing: Shades of Time 80, Impassables 57, Washouts 47, Tigers 47, Cardinals 45, Hasbeens 38.

TRIANO MIXED

Nov. 28: Miffits hung onto the top spot with a two and totals win from the Whips who saved face by winning the middle canto by 5 pins. Heading up the win were Wally Binden 588 (213), Steve Blanchard 557 (206) and Gerry Landry 501 (194). Top triconers for the Whips were Audrey Blanchard 544 (219), Bill Fabian 516 (213) and Bill Gentles 465 (181). Cannonballs fired a big win at the Nobles in the first stanza then fizzled out and the Nobles were in for the win in the last two cantos. They could not however, overcome the big first game roll of the Cannonballs and so lost out on the odd point for totals. On the triple and single plateau for the Cannonballs were John Feenstra 630 (238), Gloria Dunne 604 (270), Cliff Wedge 201 and Jean Binden 210. Top three for the Nobles were John Mitchell 624 (245), Orv Port 229-223, Bob Snyder and Elston Adams 259.

HEADLINERS

It was the end of the trail for the Acton girls competing in the Colonel

Nov. 27: Banham First Division—Beginning today's report the Teddy Bears and Kangaroos wrestled to game apiece but the Kangaroos got in a better hold to take totals. The Whales put a peg in the claws of the Crabs as they fought out the both games. Following the Whales' path the Octopus grabbed both games out of the reach of their furry counterparts, the Rabbits, to leave them pointless.
Banham second Division—The Penguins ended the week on a happy note as they flew off with both games from the Snails. In the next pair of games the Sea Horses and Cats had one game apiece but it was the Cats scratching up totals. With the Donkeys kicking up the first game the Dogs decided to look alive by coming back to take the second game and totals.
Winning the "Cokes" and "Orange Crush" for their Banham teams this week were Paul Nolan, Todd Laing, Julie Mellor and Christine Galbraith. Banham "Top Ten" for today are Terry Bateman 320 (171), Allan Edmondson 296 (182), Eddie Best 285 (175), Ann Forte 278 (140), Steve Blanchard 262 (136), Eddie Blanchard 246 (131), Henry Roach 241 (140), Bobbie Feiker 237 (125), Don McClure 234 (139), George Warner 234 (124).
