

STRIKES at Youth Bowling

By Bill Gentles

Bantam
 First Division—Laughing all the way this week, the Octopus delivered an unexpected "gift" to the Rabbits by taking away all three points. Like the Octopus, the Teddy Bears were all smiles as they kindly "removed" all points from the pouch of the Kangaroos. It was possible the Crabs had been having a little nip, as they won the first game by a large margin, but lost the second one. They were however, awake enough to take total pins.
 Second Division—The Donkeys bayed to the tune of one game and this week as they stepped on the Dog's paw. It was plain to see that the Cats hate water as they allowed the Sea Horses to romp over them for all three points. As the Bantam games come to an end, the Penguins finished on a happy note as they collected all three points from the not so happy Snails. Winning the Cokes and Orange Crush for this festive season were Kevin Bousfield, Steve Blanchard, Debbie James and Faith Middleton.
 The Bantam "Top Ten" for this week are Bert Post 327 (170), Allan Edmondson 310 (164), Kevin Bousfield 309 (188), Steve Blanchard 308 (182), Danny Thompson 300 (165), Terry Bateman 293 (177), Henry Van Der Kooij (141), Gerald Wardle 288 (169), Eddie Blanchard 265 (136), Jim Huxley 262 (131).

Juniors
 Juniors—the Hot Dogs didn't "relish" the thought of losing all the points this week, so they split them 2 apiece with the Archies. Everybody on the Dodds was trying for a turkey and it showed, as they took three of the four points away from the Turks. It was even all the way as the Boxes and the Raiders fought it out to two points each.

Seniors
 Seniors Division—The Idiots weren't lacking much when they took two games and totals from the Hoopins this week. The Spitfires ran out of fuel as they were only allowed one game when the Ding-A-Lings took the other three points. The Hive Notes were not too successful against the Knights as they gave up three of a possible four points.

HEADPIN HILITES

This Sunday is the big day for our Y.B.C. Bantams. This is the annual "Family Twosome" tournament for our young Y.B.C. bowlers. It gives them the chance to bowl with mother or dad or any relative that cares to team up with the youthful bowlers. Winning is not too important, the main factor is that the youngsters and their parents or relative can bowl together in the greatest participating sport on the North American continent. When you consider that nearly 50,000 Y.B.C.

printing of a newspaper there is the chance of 5000 errors being committed. So if by chance mistakes do occur in our bowling news don't be too critical, look at the odds against us being accurate — at this time of the festive season may we wish you one and all, the merriest and happiest Christmas ever — that winds it up once again, my friendlies, so adios, amigos and goodnite Concord City.
