I wish to extend sincere thanks to Acton Baptist Church Mission Circle, and all kind friends who visited, sent flowers and cards during my illness in Guelph General Hospital. Special thanks to Rev. Frank Byron, Dr. Garrett and all nursing staff at the hospital.

a27-1270 Hazel Cripps

We wish to express our thanks to the Acton Hydro Commission for their gift last week. We hope that our decorations helped everyone to enjoy the Christmas Season and may you all have a happy and prosperous New Year.

Jim, Ena, Patti, Ricky and Carolyn Gibson. a27-1328

My sincere thanks to the two gentlemen, who had the presence of mind to drive the children and adults injured, as a result of the collision at Crewsons Corners on Christmas Eve, directly to Guelph General Hospital. Although I have not yet been able to identify either one of them, I know one man threw things out of his car to make room for the children, who were cold, wet and bleeding. The other drove two of us directly to the hospital in a pick-up truck. Their quick action and thoughtfulness ensured the injured would receive the prompt treatment they required. These kindnesses will always be remembered.

40 ADDIS BELLES

With no league bowling for the Y.B.C. this festive season and Bill Gentles Junior taking a well deserved rest from his Y.B.C. recording we will hit you in on the Y.B.C. annual Family Twosome Tournament.

Some good bowling was done by the Hardcore and three adult partners and in some cases the youngsters bowled better than their parents. To save the parents embarrassment we will refrain from mentioning names. Bill Knight will thank me for this. The first winners were Sharon Torbosz and Paul Bert Post and Allan Edmondson. The team winners of the house prizes were Sharon and Bob Torbosz with a team score of 978. Bert and Thor Post with a score of 876 and tying them were Allan and Lisa Edmondson. This coming Sunday the Juniors and the Senior Y.B.C. bowlers will have their fling. As always welcome drops was Bob Agnew of Huntsville. Aggie wishes all his old bowling buddies the best for the New Year. Joanne McConkey of Galt was a visiting spectator at the Acton Ladies league Christmas roll and departed in good spirit being the lucky winner of the league's Christmas draw. The thought of banquets might not be appealing to some of us overstuffed bowlers at this time of the year but the Industrial Commercial league banquet is slated for May 14 at the Legion. At this time we sincerely hope you all had a good Christmas and we wish you all the best for the New Year. That winds it up once again my friendlies so adios amigos and goodnite. Concord City.

Halton-Wentworth PCs

While most political pundits are just settling down in the aftermath of the provincial election, the Halton-Wentworth Progressive Conservative Association is tuning up their electoral machinery in preparation for a federal election they are predicting in either June of October of 1972.

Association President James Swansborough, Q.C. of Burlington said an association nomination meeting would be held in April. He indicated an exact date, time and place would be released early in the new year.

Might run

Hugh Everett, Dundas mayor; George Harrington, mayor of Burlington; and David Coons, deputy reeve of Burlington are among those rumored as possible candidates. The post is now held by Liberal John Morrison.

Swansborough indicated he would not seek nomination for this election. He ran and lost to Morrison in the last federal election in 1968. He said he didn't want to be away from home for five days a week.
