During the Christmas holiday, Stan Lucluf of the local club played in the Ontario Teachers' bonspiel. The games were held at Oshawa with 56 teams taking part. The team he played on ended up winners of the trophy. Congratulations. It is very seldom a member of the Acton club ends up on an Ontario championship team.

The Erin men will be at the club this coming Saturday evening. Eight teams from each club will play one game each and the Tyler Trophy will be up for the winners. Should be some good games.

Six rinks from the local club are taking part in the Halton-Peel bonspiel. This should be wound up by the weekend.

Seems that there are certain curlers that just can not be at the rink when they are scheduled to play. Speaking of Monday evening curling, it is very rare when the eight teams are ready to go on the ice at seven. This sometimes makes it late before the games are finished and the nine o'clockers cannot get on the ice at the proper time. For the now dawn coming up let's make a new year's resolution to be at the rink and ready to play at the

STRIKES at Youth Bowling

By Bill Geddes

Banham 1st Div.

Jan. 9—The Crabs started off the New Year with a stroke of good luck as they kindly removed all three points from the waiting paws of the Rabbits. It appeared the Teddy Bears were getting down to serious business as they won a game and total from the Octopus.

The Kangaroos got more spring in their boots for the year as they bounced all over the floundering Whales to win both games.

Banham 2nd Div.

Snaking up from behind, the Snails allhered away from the Dogs with one game and total. The Penguins just couldn't get off the ground today, as they let the Cats out of the bag to lose all three points. It was the Sea Horses going down the drain as the Donkeys kicked up all the points.

The Y.B.C. banthams who quenched the thirst of their teammates by winning the "Coke" Ring game, were David Dunn, Richard Wardle, Sandra Edmondson and Christine Galbraith.

The Banthams "Top Ten" for this week are the following: Bert Post 422 (235), David Dunn 353 (208), Allan Edmondson 328 (167), Terry Bateman 395 (158), Ann Perry 291 (47), Sandra Edmondson 273 (139), Richard Wardle 270 (141), Jim Huxley 265 (133), Robbie Bousfield 258 (133), Gerald Wardle 235 (155).
