STRIKES at Youth Bowling

Everyone is trying to qualify for the "Four Steps to Stardom" and the members of the Kangaroos proved that by taking all points away from the Rabbits. The Rabbits fought back. After losing the first game they took the second game but not by enough as the Teddy Bears took totals. The Octopus took advantage of their long reach to grab all of the points away from the Crabs.

According to the laws of the jungle it was only fitting that the Dogs should take two points leaving the Cats with only one. Creeping up to catch the Donkeys by surprise, the Snails generously took all three points away. The Sea-Horses sprang to life and took off with three points from the Penguins.

Senior winners of "Cokes" and "Orange Crush" for this week are Peter Turkoos, Robbie Boussfield, Wendy Titus and Diana Hickey.

Two much clowning around was the downfall of the Boas as the Archies won all the points. It seemed as if the Turks had been watching the Archies as they took all the points from the Raiders. To round off the day the Hot Dogs pulled off another one by taking

Midget effort disappointing

Acton CFAW midgets turned in a disappointing effort, when they lost 5-3 to Fergus in Fergus last Wednesday night. Acton won both games played between the two teams before Christmas.

The loss lowered the midgets' record to 6-8-2 with five games left to go in the Waterloo-Wellington league schedule.

Thursday night the team was able to have a much needed practice, when Bramford minor midgets, were unable to come here because of the stormy weather conditions.

Midgets play in Orangeville tonight (Wednesday) and in Elora tomorrow (Thursday) night.

Bill Toth and his team lost out in the fourth round of the Halton-Peel bonspiel. They were the only surviving team of the six that entered. They played last Saturday in Mississauga.

A list of the future Saturday bonspis is posted on the lobby bulletin board.

Watched the Halton-Peel playdowns in the local club last Tuesday. Of the four games in the first draw, three teams ended the regulation ten ends in draws. The extra ends declared winners.

Have you noticed the two partitions erected in the basement? They allow for the rooms at the end to be utilized for cloakrooms and leave the centre open for future assembly room.

A ladies' mixed spiel will be held at the club this coming Saturday. Should see some real good curling then.

Last Saturday, a team of business girls played three 8-end games at Galt Golf and Country Club. The team was made up of Willa Hewitt, May Dumarsh, Norma Robinson and Heather
