Youth STRIKES at Bowling BANTAM IN DIVISION

The Kangaruna were without mercy this week as they sprang into action by beating the Whales in both games. Creeping slowly towards the top, the Crabs won a single game and totals from the Rabbits. The Teddy Bears finished up the week with a honey of a good three points taken from the BANTAM 2nd DIVISION Riding high on top are the Sea Horses who on the weekend took a firmer grip by romping over the Donkeys in both games. It seemed like the Snatis didn't like the pace on Saturday as they lost both games to the Dogs. The Penguins went fishing today and came up with one game and totals from the Cats. Winning the cokes and orange crush in the Bantam division are Kevin Bousfield, Paul Phelan, Lynne Mellor

An honorable mention goes to the following Bantams as they all bowled both games identically: Robbie Bousfield 142-142, David Dunn 146-146, Peggy Huxley 121-121, Bert Post 152-152 Terry Bateman 131-131, Allan Edmondson, 150-150, and Edmondson 150-150 and Steve Blanchard 141-141. Bantam "Top Tea" Dave Drinkwalter 312(162), Bert Post 304(152), Alian Edmondson 300(150), Dave Dunn 292(146), Donna McClure 288(192), Robble Boutfield 284(142), Kevin Bousfield 282(171). Steve Blanchard 282(141), Faith Middleton 262(154), Terry Bateman.262(131).

JUNIOR DIVISION The Dodos managed to quack up all three games from their less fortunate counterparts the Bosos. It appeared the Archies were caught napping today as the Raiders took all four points The Hot Dogs continued on their hot streak by taking two games and totals from their closest competitors the Turks.

Junior "Top Ten" Susan Thompson 566(253), John Ashley 594(230), Ron Turkosz 557(205), Gary Pickles 547(211), Maria Pataky 528(201), Patsey Storey 508(240), Cliff Creasey 480(193), Dave Mills 476(163), Brian Larsen 475(204), Karen Tremills

SENIOR DIVISION The Knights pulled away into first place as they defeated in two games and totals, their closest rivals the Idiots Not to be done out of anything the Have Nots won two games and totals from the Ding-A-Lings. To end it all up on a well rounded note, the Spittires took two games and totals from the Vendelone from the Headpins.
