

I'D LIKE TO TEACH THE WORLD TO SING they sang at St. Alban's Church Sunday morning as native-born Rev. Laurence Doby returned to conduct a "Folk Mass", the first in the 100 year-old history of the parish. Strumming guitars at the

Day of Prayer March 3

On Friday, March 3 millions of Christians in 165 countries will be linked together in a chain of compassionate concern that circles the globe.

Under the auspices of the International Committee for the World Day of Prayer women from a number of European countries, on both sides of the iron curtain, have prepared a service on the theme All Joy Be Yours.

In Canada the World Day of Prayer is sponsored by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada. They provide bi-lingual, Braille, English, French, Chinese and Japanese services free of charge.

Own community

Church women from coast to coast organize and promote the observance in their own community, and arranging for services in a variety of places, churches, campuses, homes for the aged, hospitals, schools and private homes. In Acton the service the year will be in the Christian Reformed church. A meeting is being held later this week to arrange details.

The Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada allocates the offering to alleviate human need at home and abroad. Work with retarded children in the Barbados; a newly established school for the deaf in Mexico; re-equipping a leprosy hospital in India; providing educational materials for Junior High Schools in the central Celebes, enabling the John Milton Society of Canada to print Christian literature in large type, typify the kind of projects receiving support.

SPECIALIZING IN RAISING Devon cattle, William Jas. Rudd lived on the Second line of Eramosa during the late 1800's and early 1900's. He became noted for his herd which he entered at many fairs of that day, receiving special prizes and ribbons including those from Guelph dated 1892, 1894, Brantford 1897, Toronto, 1889, London 1899 and Buffalo, 1901. His daughter, Bernice took the ribbons and made them into a colourful quilt which her father hung up in the cattle stalls as they moved from exhibition to exhibition. Today, Mrs. Bernice (Rudd) Palmer, 91, who lives on Allen Street in Guelph, proudly displays her piece of handiwork of ribbons meticulously sewn together reflecting the family pride of one of Eden Mills early farmers. —(Photo by Lorraine)

Half membership at annual meeting

The annual meeting of the Acton Baptist Church was held on February 1, following a pot luck supper. The attendance was unusually high for the general run of annual meetings, over 50 per cent of the membership being present.

Rev. Frank Byrne, pastor, presided. Reports from the various departments of the church life were presented.

66 on roll
Membership increased one by letter, three by baptism by immersion, and two were lost by removal, showing a net increase of two-for a total of 66 on the roll. The church is finding a new relationship with Cheltenham with whom it shares the pastor. Receipts for all purposes during the year totalled $8,211.99, showing for the members resident in the Acton area a gratifying of $152. per member. Included in the above total, the givings to Missions totalled $1,100.

Consideration of the budget for 1972 was left over for a month. Morning attendances are close to equal the resident membership, Sunday by Sunday. Comments church clerk George Harrap, "Pastoral messages are outstanding. The church is in good heart."

J.E. McDowell

A car salesman until his retirement, James Edgar McDowell, 20 Mill St., died in the Princess Margaret hospital, Toronto, on January 31.

His illness was brief and he died of a stroke.

His wife, the former Margaret Wilds, has gone to live now with her son Telford and family, 30 Raylawn Cres., Georgetown. Funeral service was held at the Rumley-Shoemaker funeral home February 3 with the Rev. A. McKenzie officiating. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery, Georgetown. Pallbearers were three grandsons Jim McDowell, Ted McDowell, Lyle Winfield, Georgetown; Herb Ritchie, Doug Mason and Harold Elliott of Acton.

Wed in 1922

Mr. McDowell was born at Georgetown in 1884, son of John McDowell and Christine McLean. Mr. and Mrs. McDowell were married in 1922 at the Presbyterian church in Acton, and had lived over 50 years at 20 Mill St. Previously they lived at Georgetown and Britannia.

He leaves six grandchildren, James, Ted, Bonnie (Mrs. Lyle Winfield), Steven, Sharon and Jane McDowell.

His favorite hobby the past few years was keeping his 1947 Chrysler New Yorker in perfect condition, even though it had not been driven the past few years.

Fred Kentner death unexpected

The sudden death of Fred Victor Kentner was a shock to family and friends. Mr. Kentner, well-known resident for many years, was in his 68th year. He died unexpectedly on Saturday, February 5 in Guelph General Hospital.

Funeral service was at the Rumley-Shoemaker funeral home Monday afternoon, February 7 with interment in Fairview cemetery. The Rev. Gordon Turner officiated.

Pallbearers were Donald Anderson, Ronald Anderson, Mervyn Ezeard, Murray Ezeard, Ken Marshall and John Kentner. Mr. Kentner is survived by his wife, the former Doris Bristow, who was unfortunately a patient in Toronto General Hospital at the time of her husband's death; one daughter Shirley (Mrs. Gordon McKeown) Acton and one son Fred Kentner.

He also leaves one sister Alice (Mrs. Don Herrington) Georgetown, a brother Clarence, Toronto; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by sisters Lillian, Bertha and Violet and brothers Joseph, John and Amos.

Many years here
Mr. Kentner was born in Milton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kentner and came to Acton in 1929. He was an employee of Beardmore and Co. for 41 years and retired two and half years ago.

He was a well-known poultryman, and son Fred, who lives next door on Victoria St.,

Metro Stompers to appear here

Jimmy Galloway and his Metro Stompers will make another appearance at Trinity United Church Sunday evening February 27, in a jazz celebration with minister Rev. Gordon Turner.

One of the country's best known jazz groups the Metro Stompers play Dixieland jazz that has charmed critics from coast to coast. In their last appearance in Acton the church was filled to capacity.
