Plan Mormon church in area
The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is sponsoring a concert on March 17 at their "Stake Centre" in Etobicoke, 95 Melbert Street, in aid of a building fund for a new "Mormon" chapel in this area.
A program of light classical music will be presented by artists Philip Skelton, Master of Music, University of Michigan and Assistant Conductor, Etobicoke Philharmonic; William Christmas, studying towards Master of Music at Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N.Y. and by Lily and Ray Spasovski, member of the Skopje Opera Orchestra, Yugoslavia; and others.
The money raised from ticket sales will be used to help build a chapel to serve the needs of church members in the Milton-Brampton-Georgetown-Acton area, including Cooksville and Streetsville.

Centennial notes:

Centennial writing paper is now available. Be different! Send your greetings and messages on paper bearing the Acton Centennial Emblem. The first issue is packaged in $1 quantities. Ask now at the Free Press or one of the members of the Commission.

Thank you for the overwhelming response . . .

We would like to thank all the people who donated to our U.K. Acton High Bottle Drive.

We apologize to those whose offered bottles were not collected.

We hope to conduct a spring drive at which time we will be calling again.
