

Bants defend title at 4-town tourney

Select teams from the Legion Minor Hockey league journey to Streetsville Saturday for the annual 4-town tournament, always a highlight of the hockey season for house leaguers from Acton, Georgetown, Orangeville and Streetsville.

A total of 13 games will be played in the day long event, which gets under way at 7.15 a.m. with a novice game between Streetsville and Georgetown. Champions and consolation winners will be declared in all five age groups from novice to midget.

Pee wees start

Acton pee wees play Georgetown at 8.15, the local bantams face Streetsville at 9.05 and the novices battle Orangeville at 11.15.

Acton midgets blanked Streetsville 9-0 Friday night in the first game of a total goals series that will decide one of the berths in the midget championship game. Orangeville and Georgetown are squaring off in the other series.

Chris Schats put Acton in front 1-0 on a pass from Chris Tennant at 7.30 of the first period Friday. Gary Moore scored the second goal in the third stanza with Ron Loutlet and Paul Daley assisting. Ken Jordan posted the shutout in the Acton nets.

Peewees trail

Elora Legionnaires doubled the score on Acton V's Men's peewees 4-2, here last night (Tuesday) to take a commanding five points to one lead in their best of five Waterloo-Wellington league semi-final series.

Elora won the first game 6-2, but V's Men gained a 1-1 tie in the second game, here Thursday night. Steve McKnight and Barry McKerracher were the Acton marksmen in last night's game. Joe Gardin and Ricky Holmes picked up assists.

Each team scored once in the first period, but the visitors potted a pair of unanswered goals in the second frame.

Acton held a wide margin in shots on goal in Thursday's game, but had to settle for a tie, because of a red-hot Elora goalkeeper. Ricky Holmes scored in the third period for Acton. Mark Morrison played well in the Acton nets in both games.

Acton must win in Elora Friday night at 7 to stay alive in the series.

Legion town league tallies

ATOM—Guelph battled Weston to a 5-5 tie, but failed to overcome a three goal advantage Weston built up by winning the opener 3-0. Weston captured the series 6-5.
