LAST SUNDAY'S after-church service in St. John's Anglican parish hall was a special one. The traditional Simnel cake was served with coffee, representative of the Gospel of the day, which was the feeding of the 5,000. The two warden's wives, Mrs. Sandy Hudson and Mrs. George Ingle are seen cutting into the cake which was decorated by Mrs. John by Ann Smith We had a shocking and joyful week. The shock and some of the joy was getting exams back. The report cards will be given out, for the second term, on Friday March 17 and the students will have a "Winter Break" from the 17th of March to the 27th.

The rest of the joy was the basketball and volleyball results against Brisbane, Rockwood won with a smashing victory in both games and the boys basketball score was 22 for Rockwood and 16

It is usually considered by beginners that a Western saddle is safer because you have so much to She will need lots of protein hang on with. People who learn to food, such as clean rolled western stay on a Western saddle (you notice I didn't say "learn to ride") often are completely lost when put on an English saddle.

My own personal feelings are that you will be better off to ride English. First, you will have to learn balance and a good seat. By the time this is accomplished, you can go Western then, if you prefer. Either way, your seat will be more secure.

I'm not saying that English is Prayer service at the church on harder than Western. Good riding is good riding, no matter what the style, and it is not acquired overnight. But one sees so many passenger "cowboys" flapping along on their comfy safe Western saddle with a very uncomfy horse below, whereas if one put them on an English saddle they'd promptly fall off. 1972 nurses' contract goes to conciliation

The 1972 contract for Halton County Health Unit Nurses has gone to conciliation. A conciliation officer was to meet with representatives of the county and the association yesterday.

In a press release from the association, secretary Lynda Putman said the Halton County Councillors on ther personnel committee together with the personnel officer refused to discuss the nurses' proposals submitted at the commencement of the meetings and have yet to make a salary offer.

All of the members of the association are public health nurses and 21 of them are qualified public health nurses.

Attempt to save doe attacked by three dogs

Three young Eden Mills hove made a valiant attempt last Saturday to rescue and prolong the life of a doe which had been badly ravaged by three dogs running loose in the district.

Steve Lowrie, 16 a Gueloh Centennial student, Brad Chamberlain, 16, a Georgetown High School Student, and Torn Parker, also 16 of the Acton High School, had been out morning bush tramping on the Parker Furn located on the 2nd line of Nassagaweya, when they heard dogs barking loudly.

Hurrying to the scene they found a young doe standing frozen with fear in the water of the Blue Springs river. surrounded by 3 yelping dogs. From the tracks in the snow the dogs had obviously chased the trightened animal for some time

Ten minutes later they were once more alerted by more barking and the sound of the deer beliewing frantically. Reaching the river's edge this time they found the doe under the water with the dogs tearing at her throat and hind quarters. The tryx chased off the dogs again and finally dragged the badly bleeding doe to shore safety where they rubbed its frozen limbs in an attempt to restore circulation.
