Meadows' anchor man, Jim Bullough trundled a 330 to head up the win and it was a new half game. Came the fifth game and Dominion couldn't match fullough's 318 atint and the Mendows had a game in hand.

The sixth and what proved to be the last hall rolled by the two anchor men, Hullough for Acton Masdows and the old pro, Jack Gould for Dominion Hatel. Came the last frame and Hollough made with a double strike and punched the headpin for a 35

Gould came up for his last and final fling and his first ball left up a corner pin. His second hall just shaved the pin and Jack plurked it with his third and final ball for a 15 count to wind up with 321 fait to the dismay of the Dominionites they were 5 pins short of victory and it was a jubilant team that pounded Bullougha back when they knew they had the fourth and deciding game in a best four out of seven set Beeraw hattle The Hinton's Store and Heliable

Taxi was a seesaw hattle. They went right down to the wire for seven games. In the first game, Pete Homer, ancher man for itellable rolled a 346 to offset Bob Turkosz' 312 and the "Taxl Boys" had the lead. No one, on Italiables matched Hinton's anchor men Bill Shennon's 30; in the second and it was a Hinton win. Turkosz rolled a 312 for Hintons in the third game but the steady lowling of the Reliable team offset this and was one game up for Reliable. Both teams got a little cautious in the fourth but the final count gave Hinton's the nod by 22 pins and it was even-steven. The fifth game saw Primo Rigo set the pure for Hinton's with a 304 effort and it was Ifinton's turn to go one up. This was a rough one for Reliable to lose, because Hill Johnstone, lead-off man for Reliable, posted the high single of the day, a 361. Iteliable, nothing daunted, came out gunning in the sixth game and with the veteran

Don Grein clicking for a 344, Heliable
