Ballinafad 4-H, W.I. in news

By Mrs. R. Shortill
Mrs. L. Marshall was hostess for the annual meeting of the Institute. Twelve members sat down to a dainty dinner table for a pot-luck meal in the usual style. Hot casseroles, salads, jellies and desserts were enjoyed by the ladies, to the accompaniment of jokes, laughter and general gossip.

At two o'clock the meeting began with the president Mrs. Grace McEnery in the chair and Mrs. Eleanor McLean in charge of the secretary's book.

Minutes were read and roll call answered by payment of fees by twelve members.

Conveners report
Reports were then given for the different branches. Mrs. Ada Kirkwood - public relations; Mrs. Lola Marshall - Historical Research; Mrs. L. Given - Health and safety; Mrs. Slessoraitis - Citizen and Education; Mrs. W. Smith - Agriculture and Can. Industries; Mrs. Jamieson - Home Economics; Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Ada McLean - Welfare.

Mrs. Given gave the report of the Nominating Committee with officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. Eleanor McLean and Mrs. Grace McEnery will change offices.

The treasurer reported a nice sum realized from the sale of pies to the Caledon Ski Club. Material for the Cancer canvass was distributed.

Reports were given on the district Annual.

Also reports of expenses involved for 4-H trays etc. were given as well as other expenses incurred.

All in all, the meeting, although a lengthy one, was very interesting. On Tuesday the executive meets to plan programs for the coming year.

Ebenezer U.C.W. has open meeting
By Mrs. Ron McLean
Ebenezer U.C.W. held a well-attended open meeting, when Laura and George Hewer showed views of their Canadian trips. Prior to the showing of the pictures, a program under the convenship of Mrs. M. Thomson, was held. It included solos by Laurie and Sandra Early, Paula Kitching, guitar duets by Ross and Ken Hewer, and readings by Mrs. M. Moffat. The pictures showed views of both the west and east coasts of Canada, and were much admired. Mrs. D. Joss expressed the appreciation of the gathering to Mr. and Mrs. Hewer. Lunch concluded the evening.

Mr. W. Early is under the weather after tangling with a steer.

Slides of Brazil
Members of local and out-of-town churches gathered for the Sunday evening service at the Baptist church. The occasion was the spring thank-offering of the Marion Rudd mission circle.

All those present were taken on an imaginary trip to South America with Harriet Helwig and Vera Inglis who showed slides of their recent tour of Brazil. There were many beautiful scenes of the country around Brasilia, Petropolis and Sao Paulo which helped to erase the chill of the ice and snow still in Canada.

Musical selections
The senior girls of Churchill community choir were present and gave musical numbers which were beautifully rendered. The meeting was chaired by the president Marjorie Landsborough. Jessie Coles led in the song service of old familiar hymns and Alice Pilkington read the scripture. Wilma Chapman in very fitting words thanked all those who had contributed to the service. A delicious lunch was served in the basement of the church by the social committee convened by Edna Gordon.
