Murray Kernighan twice NDP candidate

chemical manufacturing business, former federal election candidate for the NDP and an active worker in his church and his community, Murray S. Kernighan, B.A.S., P. Eng., dled Saturday at Milton District

Mr. Kernighan was well known throughout Halton for his work with the New Democratic Party.

He campaigned unsuccessfully for election to Halton's federal seat in 1965 and again in 1968 as an NDP, and had earlier

contested the federal seat in West

York for the CCF in 1945 and 1949.

Owner and manager of a Milton He was active in Milton Chamber of Commerce for several years and was the group's president in 1962. He also served on Milton Planning Board for six years, five of those years as chairman. He was clerk of session at Knox Presbyterian Church and taught Sunday school there for many years, until he became ill about two years ago.

> He had been ordained as an elder in the Presbyterian Church while attending Morningside Church in Swansea in 1950. He had served in that church as an elder and as superintendent of the Sunday school. Both his father and grandfather had been active church workers and he followed in their steps.

A member of the Association of Professional Engineers of Ontario, he was also a professional member of the Chemical Institute of Canada. His business connections also involved memberships in the Pest Control Operators Assoc. and the Ontario Funeral Service Association.

The funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon at Knox Church, with the Rev. John M. Murray officiating. At Mr. Kernighan's request, it was a service of witness to the resurrection, rother than a memorial service. Knox College theology student Gordon Timbers read the Old Testament lesson and Clerk of Session Kenneth Marshall read the New Testament lesson. The Knox Male Quartet, including David Lockie, Cameron Wilson, Neil McPhail and Robert Laking sang morning. Rev. Murray also officiated at the burial service.
