Last Wednesday, the team headed by Bill Toth took the Goy trophy. On his team were Collier Baker, Rich Jackson and Bill Wilson. It is for supremacy in the men's division for the season. The Toth team defeated the team headed by Allan Ellerby and Brydon Hunter co-skips the winners of the first draw of the season.
And in the Ridley mixed trophy, the name of Bill Toth and his rink again shows up. They won the trophy last Saturday.
At the same time, the Hiram Walker trophy was on the line. It was won by the team skipped by Walter Dubois and his mixed rink.
The annual dinner has been postponed until May 13. This was necessitated because another event is scheduled for May 6.
It is being proposed that the board of directors be increased to 13 at the annual meeting. Two other members of the board will be the president and treasurer of Halton Junior Farmers were "poor hosts" to the annual province-wide tournament of North Junior Farmer hockey teams Saturday. They won their own tournament and emerged champions of the eight-team competition held at Milton Arena. It was the first tourney win for the Halton club, although they claimed the consolation crown in 1969. Previous champions were Wellington in 1969, Waterloo in 1970 and Ontario County in 1971. Ontario and Waterloo had won consolation honors in 1970 and 1971.

En route to the crown, Halton polished off Wentworth G-1 in the morning opener, doubled Wellington 4-2 in the semi-final and soundly trounced North Simcoe 10-3 in the final. Captain Lloyd Zuest was Halton's top marksman of the day with a total of six goals in the three games, including two hat tricks.
Others on the Halton entry were George King, Dave Norton, Don Griswood, Art Brooks, Pete Griswood, Jeff Nurse, Bob Davis and Rob Colbeck.
Trophies were presented at a dance, held in the agricultural hall in Milton Fair Grounds after the tournament.

BIG FOUR
Apr. 14: Eagles hung onto their one point lead when they flew away with a triple win from Hot Shots. Doing the high flying for Eagles were Floyd Hammond 685 (272), Ken Parrish 579 (211) and Marg Hammond 478 (169). Top trio for Hot Shots were "Big Jake" Van Der Kooij 640 (265), Ches Lewandowski 524 (195) and "Little Jake" Van Der Kooij 424 (165). Mud Lucks still one point behind Eagles, they failed to gain ground but kept up the pace with a three game win from Wildcats. Heading up the win were Renee Vankamp 607 (240), John deLauwa 503 (217) and John Van Der Kooij 518 (178). Top trio for Wildcats were Dolf Van Arragon 624 (256), Humo Hoy 508 (187) and Chris Duker 491 (191).
League standing: Eagles 109, Mud Lucks 108, Wildcats 100, Hot Shots 81.
INDUSTRIAL-COMMERCIAL
Apr. 18: It will be John's Texaco Service and Pete's Barber Shop toeing the foul line in the Industrial-Commercial finals. John's Texaco made it by eliminating the Oakville Automotive and Pete's Barber Shop got there by knocking off the Jon Hurat Electric. In the John's Texaco Service-Oakville Automotive 80, it was the "Oakies" paced by John McMillaway's 313 who grabbed the first game. The "Texans" evened the count in the second with a convincing win. In the third game, "Oakies" failed to get behind Earle Middleton's 331 effort and they advanced to the finals.
