John's Texaco trims Barbers

Apr. 23: In the best four out of seven game finals, it was John's Texaco Service who emerged triumphant over Pete's Barber Shop. On Bun and Badstreet, the odds were quoted at 7 to 5 on the "Barbers", but the "Texans" were not paying any attention to the odds and wound it up with a four to two win.

In the first game, the "Texans" got the jump when Terry Masales with a 316 headed up the "Texan" win. Jim Bullough fired the "Barbers" up in the second game with a 306 effort and the "Barbers" were even with a 27 pin win. The third game was a clutch shooting affair with the "Texans" coming off best by 38 pins. The fourth game saw the "Barbers" pull even again with a 19 pin win.

Both teams were trying hard for the tie-breaker in the fifth but Lady Luck was smiling on the "Texans" and they copped the decision by 33 pins. In the sixth and what proved to be the final game, Jeff Fryer tried to set the "Barbers" up with a 311 effort but it was the "old pro" Phil LeSueur who proved to be the hero for the "Texans" when he fired a 350 solo to head up the "Texans" game of 1378, the best game of the day and it was curtains for the "Barbers" who tallied 1231.
