Asks sentence for boxla fighters

Request by the Acton Ram junior lacrosse club for enlargement of penalty box facilities in the arena has prompted Councillor Peter Marks to suggest that the club recommend to the O.L.A. that a game misconduct accompany all fighting penalties. Arena manager Harold Townsley said it would be difficult to enlarge the box in its present location because of a sprinkler pipe, which abuts the back of it. Townsley told Acton Parks and Recreation Committee imposition of a game misconduct penalty for fighting was tried out this year in the Waterloo-Wellington Minor Hockey League and that in his opinion it worked out real well. Timers and statisticians have also complained about the lack of space and restricted visibility in their enclosed box, which is located between the penalty boxes for the visiting and home teams.

Lady curlers elect slate

The ladies wound up the curling season with their annual pot luck supper and meeting at the club last Thursday evening. The new slate of officers for the 1972-73 season is as follows: past president, May Dumarsh; president, Willa Hewitt; 1st vice, Lucille Cocksley; 2nd vice, Vivian Roszell; treasurer, Helen Otterbein; secretary, Lucille Cocksley; corresponding secretary, Lily Higgins; social convener, Flo Bowen.

Snack bar, Pauline Symon, Lil Stapleton, Bea Dubois. Draw Committee, Kae Hansen, Anne Moore, Gwen Tyler. Bonspiel, May Dumarsh, Heather Dumarsh, Lois Mackenzie. Business girls secretary, Lois Mackenzie. Golf day, Jean McPhail. Program and decorating, Olive Eberly, Dolores Jordan, Pearl Baker.

Awards made. Trophies and prizes were presented to the winners and runners up for the year.

The Ben Rachlin trophy for the afternoon ladies was won by Lucille Cocksley, Ina Mellon, Pat Near, Betty Eastwood. Runners up were Kae Hansen, Mary McKenzie, Kay Alger, Barb Jackson. The Alexander Mackenzie trophy for the first draw was presented by Vivian Roszell to Anne Moore, Jean McPhail, Anne Toth, Pat Near. Runners-up Gwen Tyler, Lil Stapleton, Agnes Holmes, Rosalee Dawkins.

Presented by Ruth Leatherland, the new Paul Nielsen trophy went to May Dumarsh, Norma Robinson, Ella Nielsen, Velma West. Second for this trophy were Gwen Tyler, Nan Hurst, Nellie Beatty, Elsie Whitlam. Winners of the Don Bexton trophy for the mini-spiel were Ruth Leatherland, Nan Hurst, Kay Alger, Trev Patrick.

THE thrift shop was open Thursday evening as an experiment. Donors and shoppers both arrived.

Name Barry Inscoe W-W vice-president

Barry Inscoe was among three men named officers of the Waterloo-Wellington Minor Hockey League at the league's annual meeting in Elora Thursday night.

Mr. Inscoe moved up the ladder from 2nd vice-president to 1st vice-president in the same move that saw Harvey Vines of Elmira named president and Jean-Paul Gauthier of Orangeville chosen 2nd vice-president. New Hamburg's Jack Pearson remains on the executive as immediate past president.

Representatives from the seven towns were unable to find a successor to retiring secretary-treasurer John Hummel of Kitchener.

Five delegates. Acton was represented by a full complement of five voting delegates, along with Mr. Inscoe, but representation from most other centres was disappointing. Don Van Fleet, Carl Timbers, Bill Knight, John Creasey and Denis Gibbons represented Acton.

Acton was also the only centre to propose amendments to the constitution. O.M.H.A. executive member Al Moore of Guelph also suggested amendments.

Following discussion on the proposals, it was decided the five convener system will be abandoned and that Mr. Moore will convene all five age groups next season.

No decision. No decision was made on another proposal by Mr. Moore that coaches or managers ejected from league games receive an automatic one game suspension. An O.M.H.A. rule already
