

GIRLS ARE BETTER public speakers than boys, if a recent public speaking contest at Brookville Public School is any indication. These three girls display the awards they acquired for being the top talkers in a contest held Friday at the school. Overall winner was Carol Inglis, 13, a grade seven student

Wants film on VD here
Community Services Committee chairman Dave Coons suggested Halton County should look into the possibility of obtaining a copy of a film about venereal diseases shown on television recently.
Coons said the film was an excellent one and in view of the growing concern about venereal diseases, it might be useful to have it shown in high schools.
Medical Officer of Health Dr. J. H. Chamberlain said several films on the subject were available through the Department of Health. He was asked to investigate the matter.

Her talk on evolution wins oratory contest

Top public speaker at Brookville Public School in Nassagaweya is Carol Inglis, 13, a student of grade seven.
Carol conducted a talk on "evolution" in a public speaking contest held at the school Friday. Competing against her were 11 fellow students.
Also honored for their speaking abilities were Alice Klaver, 12, whose eye-witness account of a DC-8 plane crash won her the honor of top speaker of grade six and grade eight pupil Alice Summerfield who was judged the best grade eight speaker for her talk on "freedom".
Alice Klaver received a book called Spies and Spies for her efforts, while Alice Summerfield was awarded a book on the complete works of William Shakespeare. Carol Inglis was presented with a school trophy. Attending the contest were the school's student body and the staff, plus several parents. Judges for the contest, which lasted for about two hours, were Mrs. June Andrews, Harry Sterne and Rev. Russell Findlay of Ebenezer United Church.

Churchill Mrs. Davidson's death brings gloom to district

By Mrs. Fred MacArthur
Sunday evening's Churchill Church service was very well attended. Songs of Eventide were chosen from evening hymns by Rev. Fosbury and his scripture reading was Matthew, ch. 20, verses 1-16. The orchestra gave assistance with the organist Mrs. Don Anderson. The full choir's selection was Near The Cross; senior girls, I Would Be True; Miss Erica Stokov's solo, I Don't Know How To Love Him, accompanied by her sister Elizabeth Stokov on the piano. Mrs. Emerson Anderson rendered her solo, God Hath Not Promised. The whole congregation sang numerous hymns, some new to us. Rev. Fosbury closed the service in the usual way with prayer.
Sudden death
Gloom encircled the whole community when we neighbors and friends heard of the sudden death of Mrs. R. L. Davidson. During the Churchill Sunday service Rev. Fosbury spoke of how Mrs. Davidson had been a good friend of Churchill Church; he felt that she had been a source of encouragement to him in his work here. She has been in failing health for some time but able to get around.
All of us in Churchill district wish to extend our deepest sympathy to her loving husband Bert Davidson, son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Davidson, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Marshall and family, also her sister Mrs. Arthur Griffin, all of Acton, and brother Mr. William McArthur, Erin, and sister-in-law Mrs. Howard McArthur, now of Hillsburg.
The funeral on Monday afternoon conducted by her pastor Rev. McKenzie of Acton Knox Church was one of the largest held in Acton, showing the esteem in which she and her husband have been held by their many friends far and wide.
Sunday visitors
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lloyd of Barrie, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Martin and Mr. Ivan Johnson of Vineland, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Muldor of Fergus; Mr. William McArthur, Erin, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, also with Mrs. Arthur Griffin on Sunday.
Presentation
Bannockburn Women's Institute joined with Churchill friends and neighbors and held a presentation for Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McDonald on Saturday, May 6, evening in Churchill church. They were married in (Continued on Page 10)
